Maga,2017-10-10 How to be prepared no matter where running might take you Millions of runners around the US are interested in special experiences, whether it means running a bucket-list event like the Boston Marathon, or competing in beautiful and challenging locales such as Rome or Death Valley. Whatever race you choose, there is no one better to guide you on your journey than Bart Yasso, chief running officer at Runner's World magazine. Over the past 40 years, Yasso has run more than 1,000 races, across all seven continents, at every conceivable distance, from local 5Ks to grueling ultramarathons and Ironman triathlons. He's truly done it all, and in Race Everything, he shares the secrets of how he trained, the particularities of each course, and the specific insights he has gleaned to help you run your best no matter the distance. This book offers tried-and-true advice on how to train and what to do on race day to make the best use of your training. It provides everything you need to know to succeed at the most popular race distances, including general training principles, targeted training plans for beginners and experienced runners alike, and insider tips based on Yasso's own experiences and those of other top runners he has known and run with. The goal is to inform and inspire runners eager to challenge themselves by tackling the world's signature races. You will also learn Yasso's methods for winning the greatest race of all, longevity, so that you can remain healthy, fit, and able to race for decades to come. Whether your goal is to complete a 5K or 10K race in your hometown or conquer the Antarctica Marathon, Runner's World Race Everything will be your guide.

The Half Marathon Training Program on 2 Run's a Week Mike Gingerich,2020-01-30 Is it possible to train for and run a 1/2 marathon when only doing 2 training runs a week?Isn't that craziness? Can it really work?YES! It is possible to complete a half marathon without killing your body or spending loads of time on training runs! YES! It is possible to be fit, prepared, and ready to run a half marathon in 12 weeks, just 90 days, doing just 2 training runs a week! In fact, in this program you will not run over 10 miles at any time and you will be race ready to run 13.1 miles successfully and with less wear and tear on your body on race day!The secret is 3 key ingredients: Longer runs at your Half Marathon Target Heart Rate (HMTHR) during training. Speedwork to toughen you up for the late miles of a 1/2 marathon. Lots of HIIT cross-training workouts in-between runs. Together, this combination saves you time, prepares your whole body, lessens wear and tear, and fits a busy lifestyle.
