imwe imba - the other room Munashe Wadzanai, Anne Schlechters, Thomas F. Andersson, 2022-11-01 Munashe is a bright adolescent girl living in Zimbabwe. She feels a pressure to leave Zimbabwe and to follow most of her peers to a university or to work in the West. However, she is not convinced that this is what she really wants. Via Thomas, an experienced European scientist and manager, initiating a technical Start-up Hub at her boarding school, Munashe comes in contact with Anne. Imwe imba - the other room - is a novel covering the last 2 high-school years of Munashe and Anne in letters between the young women as well as from Thomas to Simon, his now retired personal and business coach. Through the letters, Anne and Simon discover unknown and fascinating aspects of the (southern) African society. Especially, since Thomas includes stories from Nelson, Munashe's grandfather and small holder farmer. Based on the stories and hearing about Munashe's activities in more technical projects, Anne develops a critical attitude towards both the current Western school system and the effectiveness of traditional Western development or aid projects. On the other side, Munashe learns that Europe is not the land of milk and honey for everybody. Munashe and Anne, assisted by Thomas, review the so-called development work activities in emerging markets and propose a promising approach to economically uplift more rural areas. In part 2, the Start-up Hub activities are proven to be sustainable and Munashe asks where do we want to go? A design is made for a more ideal (global) society and the issues faced, implementing their ideas, are discussed. The letters in this novel cover a wide spectrum of topics: personal struggles and contemplations, educational and business practices, science and art, geopolitics and historical backgrounds, change management as well as social developments. Each letter is written in an accessible language and underlined with references to allow the reader to explore more. Most of all, imwe imba wants to create awareness. Awareness for the wonderful, real life in Africa. Awareness that Africa is prosperity. Awareness that our younger generation is perfectly able to initiate change. That a single person can initiate change. That complaining or being upset about various (unacceptable) global happenings or actions is not enough. That a further polarisation and blaming the others doesn't help. That we have to do things. That we should not fear change but embrace the changes that are needed to come to the necessary improvements.

The Scratch Daughters H. A. Clarke, 2022-10-25 "Sharp and exciting, always vivacious and sensory . . . All I want is more—more of these sweet vicious girls and their helplessly loving leader, changing themselves, one another and the world." —Amal El-Mohtar, The New York Times Book Review The Craft for Gen Z: The Scratch Daughters, indie bestselling author H. A. Clarke crafts a brilliant, award-nominated sequel to The Scapegracers: a raw and roiling tribute to queer lineage, to finding oneself, and to the deep love of chosen family. Sideways Pike is desperate. It turns out that Madeline Kline didn't want to make out with her; infinitely worse, she was only flirting to get access to Sideways' specter. Madeline has ripped the magical soul out of Sideways' throat, and with it, everything that makes a witch feel whole.

Madeline would know: the Chantry boys took hers, and she's going to use Sideways' specter to hunt them down and get it back. Sideways Pike, lesbian witch extraordinaire, isn't going to let little things like a treacherous crush or a brutal family of creepy witch hunters stop her, even if it means tracking down Madeline without the Scapegracers—her best friends, her coven, the girls she's come to love ferociously above all else. But Sideways and her trusty bike are in for a bumpy ride . . .

The Starlight Cafe: A Sweet Small Town Romance Leeanna Morgan, 2022-04-01
Fans of Pamela Kelley and Robyn Carr will love this small-town, feel-good romance! Andrea Smith is determined to give her sons a happy life in Sapphire Bay. After leaving an abusive marriage, the peace and stability she's found in the small Montana town soothes her soul and gives her the courage to rebuild her life. With the development of the cottages on Anchor Lane underway, she sees an opportunity to open the café she's always dreamed about. It will take a lot of hard work and more money than she has, but she needs to make this work—for her and her children. David O'Dowd is the Clinical Director of BioTech Industries--a high-tech medical device company that's changing people's lives. With the company opening a research facility in Sapphire Bay, it's David's job to find the perfect building and keep their investors happy. When he sees the cottages on Anchor Lane being remodeled, he's intrigued by the woman who's working day and night to open a new café.

When he meets her sons, he can't help but be inspired by what she's trying to do. But with mounting costs and limited resources, Andrea needs help to fund the rest of the project. With David's financial skills and Andrea's enthusiasm, they work together to create a future that's brighter than either of them imagined. But will their past tragedies allow them to build a new life together, or will they tear them apart? THE STARLIGHT CAFE is the second book in The Cottages on Anchor Lane series and can easily be read as a stand-alone. All of Leeanna's series are linked. If you find a character you like, they could be in another novel! Praise for Leeanna Morgan's books: I am addicted to Leeanna Morgan's books! The only problem with them is that I hate coming to the end of one, and can't wait for the next good read. I love how she weaves the characters together and draws you right into their lives. If you haven't discovered her, please do give her books a try. You won't be disappointed, except for not having found her sooner! I thoroughly enjoyed this book! I couldn't put it down. I purchased it today and finished it just now. Captivating story from beginning to end. Definitely a five-star book.
