Social Bookmarking with StumbleUpon Shark Bite Coaching,2014-03-31 The web is probably the largest gold mine ever, figuratively speaking. It is by far the biggest community ever established where people get to do practically anything they want and find anything they need. The Internet is the best place to shop, play games, establish communication, and conduct research. It is the most effective and fastest means of meeting people and promoting products and services. And what's even better is the fact that the web currently presents tons of services intended to make your life easier. One of the services that has been gaining in significance is social bookmarking. This guide will give you insight on: - getting started with social bookmarking - the simplicity of it - becoming a stumbler - creating good bookmarking content - converting stumblers into subscribers - and more... Now you are probably wondering how you can meet and establish friendly relationships via StumbleUpon. The answer to that is quite simple. In fact, you may be surprised at how fast you can make friends. For instance, take note of the user that added content or an article that interests you. Later on, you find similar articles that interest you posted by the same user. You're beginning to think you may share some of the same interests, so you go to their profile and find the option to add them as a friend. Of course, they'll usually have to accept you as their friend, but once they check out your profile and see your interests are similar, they'll be happy to be on your friend list. Through this method, you will end up building a network of friends in no time. This in turn will help you find many websites or articles that interest you the most and then you get to share them with others.
