Public Administration and Regional Management in Russia Elena G. Popkova,Konstantin V. Vodenko,2020-04-10 This book addresses current challenges in public administration and regional management in Russia. By taking into account socio-economic factors, as well as key ethnic, cultural and social processes in multicultural regions, it identifies the prerequisites for successful public governance and regional management. The respective contributions cover a broad range of topics, including digitalization trends, managerial approaches, diversification strategies, and corporate cultures. Moreover, the book discusses the effects of ethnopoltical tensions and interethnic tolerance on public administration in Russia's multicultural regions. Given its scope, the book offers a valuable resource for scholars and public servants at governmental institutions.
