We Are All Green on the Inside Jenna Stone, Abraham

Mendoza, 2014-08-22 We are All Green on the Inside Lore of Likenesses, Leafy Listening, and Learning... Amidst Appalachia's fall foliage and vibrantly hued tree canopies, Jenna Stone - published author, innovator, Fulbright Scholar, producer, teacher, and mother - created We are All Green on the Inside, a first edition children's book that teaches how kindness, understanding, and respect can become deeply rooted, as our differences connect us and instill a true sense of belonging. As the leaves frolic together in the crisp fall air, their differing colors raise doubt, distrust and discrimination, yet they learn that no matter what color they are on the outside, they are each All Green on the Inside. Beautifully illustrated by award-winning artist Abraham Mendoza, this multicultural story has also been adapted for curriculum use in Preschool and Elementary School environments, as the spirited leaves teach tolerance, friendship, cooperation and inclusion. We Are All Green on the Inside is available now at www.jenna-stone.com. Jenna is also available for speaking engagements, book signings, and special events, both nationally and internationally. A fifteen-year Creative Writing and English teacher, she addresses many timely topics and engages audiences of all ages with positivity and the core spirit of this leafy bunch. All Green Lights Bryan Fletcher, Bonnie C. Tabungao, 2020-03-20

After many months of long work commutes, dense traffic, work stress as a wage slave, one difficult diet after another, and sleepless nights of tossing and turning, Bonnie seems quite exhausted, malnourished, and timeless. Such as, when will relief arrive? And, when will I find paradise? And especially, when will she find someone to love and cherish? So, she buys another lottery ticket.

The Lights Were All Green! Gerald J Walsh, 2008-07 Born just a year before the Great Depression and growing up on a small farm in rural North Dakota, Msgr. Walsh knew what life was like for his parents and siblings in those difficult times. In the midst of such hardship he discovered his calling to the ordained ministry and was ordained a Roman Catholic Priest in May of 1955. Now semi-retired from full active priestly service and wintering in sunny Tucson, Arizona, he tells the story of his 50 years of priesthood. +

The Green Bay Packers All-Time All-Stars Chuck

Carlson, 2019-09-01 Let's say you're the coach of the Green Bay Packers, deciding which players should start in a Super Bowl matchup against the toughest team in the AFC. But instead of choosing from the current roster, you have every player in the team's 100-year history in your locker room. Who starts at quarterback: the steady field general Bart Starr, gunslinger Brett Favre, or cannon-armed Aaron Rodgers? At outside linebacker, do you play Hall of Famer Dave Robinson, Lombardi-favorite Dan Currie, current All Pro Clay Matthews, or another player from the team's deep roster? Which players get the start at wide receiver? Donald Driver, James Lofton, Sterling Sharpe, Max McGee, Jordy Nelson, or Antonio Freeman? Combining career stats, common sense, and a host of intangibles, veteran sportswriter Chuck Carlson imagines an embarrassment of riches and sets the all-time All-Pro Packer lineup for the ages.

Green, the Environmental Fairy Carla Filgas, 2012-09-01 There are only so many 'bads' in one day, Green would say to herself in a very positive way after crashing into a tree. And one has already happened. So the rest of the day will be perfect. Green has all the reason in the world not to be positive. She is a homeless fairy, living in a Fairy Shelter. She has looked for a job, even gone to the Fairy Job Fair, but all the fairy jobs would be had by other fairies. She interviewed to be Cinderella's fairy, but a beautiful little sprite would have that job. She tried for the Tinkerbell position and many more, but wasn't even chosen as a Tooth Fairy. She was becoming green with envy, a characteristic she did not like at all. She wanted what all of us want, a home of her own and the ability to take care of herself. Being jobless hurts. Though because she was homeless, she had learned to recycle, reclaim, and reuse. That was who she had become and she was very aware of what was happening to the Earth. Before she had a chance to leave the fair, The Boss of All Fairies finds her and offers her a job that suits her perfectly. She would be the Environmental Fairy and change the world through the minds of the children. And so it was. Green would set out on her first of many tasks, the world water issue. That's what she would take on first. The Boss of All Fairies hands her a package of Fairy Sticky Note Pads. Most fairies use magic wands, but hers would be in the shape of sticky notes. On them, she would write words of conscience and stick them on the foreheads of children as they sleep. In the morning those words would become part of their new way of thinking. They would be inspired to compromise, but not necessarily do without. If all of us learned to compromise, the world would be a better place for everyone. She asks The Boss of all Fairies, Wouldn't everyone want the Earth to be a better place for people and animals? She would fight for the world, our home. Although this is her first book for children, Ms. Filgas has been shaping the minds of young children for 38 years. As a recently retired teacher, she has influenced more than a thousand children throughout her teaching career. She looks forward to continuing to touch the hearts and minds of today's children through her work with the Environmental Fairy, Green. Carla Filgas lives in Healdsburg, California with her husband Dennis Martin, 2 dogs, Bear, a Golden Retriever, and Chloe, a Basset Hound, 40 koi fish, 15 chickens, and an extensive garden. In her spare time, she crafts reusable bags and purses from chicken, cat, and dog feed sacks and canvasses second hand or antique stores seeking other recyclables. Her own children, now adults, were an influence on her writing. Stay tuned for further adventures of Green, the Environmental Fairy. Through her writing, Carla wishes to shape the future of our world through the minds of our young people. Once a child's life has been influenced to recycle, reclaim and reuse, they in turn will become an influence for others to do the same. Hopefully children will develop some insights as to the Green Fairy's plight of poverty and her care for the environment. This book will give parents the ability to dialogue with their children about these issues in a friendly, less stressful way through the eyes of a young fairy and her efforts to survive in the world as it is today, helping Green fight for a better world.

Green Chic Christie Matheson, 2008-03-01 Matheson slyly steers us toward consumer goods and services that minimize our earth-stomping human footprint. She's brave enough to say 'buy less of everything,' and even the politically fraught 'buy nothing.' Matheson's genius is to make this seem not only doable, but fun. — Elizabeth Royte, author of Garbage Land and Bottlemania Want to go green without giving up great style? Welcome to the world of Green Chic. Choosing to be green makes a real difference in the fight against global warming. But did you know that it's also hip, classic and stylish? Offering up dozens of author-tested, earth-friendly ideas, writer Christie Matheson reveals that being chic and saving the planet aren't mutually exclusive. Embrace the fabulousness of green living and you can: Look gorgeous Have a killer wardrobe Feel amazing Travel in style Create a home that's an oasis Host fun parties Eat incredible food and drink phenomenal wine ... All while feeling more connected to your friends, family and nature. (And did we mention that green women don't get fat?) Printed on recycled paper, with a portion of its proceeds going to a green cause, Green Chic is the perfect book for style-savvy readers with a green heart. Can living a chic green lifestyle TRULY make a difference to the planet? You bet your organic cotton sheets it can. Buying into the Green Chic movement doesn't mean you need to buy more stuff. Avoid products that purport to be green just for the marketing effect: organic processed foods; huge, gas-guzzling hybrid SUVs; clothes boasting that they're green just because they're made from natural cotton. Claiming to be green is trendy and companies out there are taking advantage. Don't believe all the hype. 10 GREEN CHIC—AND EASY—WAYS TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE Ditch bottled water: refill a sassy thermos. Pop little purchases in your purse, not a shopping bag. Sip biodynamic wine. Choose cashmere, not acrylic. Let your hair air dry for a while before you blow dry: less frizz, less energy consumed. Unplug (and put away) unsightly cell phone chargers. Opt for quality over quantity in everything you buy. Cut down on clutter. Limit your consumption of anything packaged in plastic. Support local designers. BUT REMEMBER: Don't go out and replace everything you own, from your makeup to your wardrobe to your furniture, with (theoretically) ecofriendly products. Being ecofriendly means consuming less, not more. Get in the habit of thinking before you buy. The best time to purchase ecofriendly goods is when you need them. That's when you're in a position to make a choice and express yourself as a green consumer. Being Green isn't a fad ... it's timelessly chic.

The Green Book Elizabeth Rogers, Thomas M.

Kostigen, 2007-06-19 Ellen DeGeneres, Robert Redford, Will Ferrell, Jennifer Aniston, Faith Hill, Tim McGraw, Martha Stewart, Tyra Banks, Dale Earnhardt, Jr., Tiki Barber, Owen Wilson, and Justin Timberlake tell you how they make a difference to the environment. Inside The Green Book, find out how you can too: - Don't ask for ATM receipts. If everyone in the United States refused their receipts, it would save a roll of paper more than two billion feet long, or enough to circle the equator fifteen times! - Turn off the tap while you brush your teeth. You'll conserve up to five gallons of water per day. Throughout the entire United States, the daily savings could add up to more water than is consumed every day in all of New York City. - Get a voice-mail service for your home phone. If all answering machines in U.S. homes were replaced by voice-mail services, the annual energy savings would total nearly two billion kilowatt hours. The resulting reduction in air pollution would be equivalent to removing 250,000 cars from the road for a year! With wit and authority, authors Elizabeth Rogers and Thomas Kostigen provide hundreds of solutions for all areas of your life, pinpointing the smallest changes that have the biggest impact on the health of our precious planet.
