The Bible in Ethiopia Curt Niccum, 2014-05-28 The Ethiopic version provides a window into the state of the Greek Bible as it circulated in East Africa at the end of the fourth century. It is, therefore, an extremely important witness to the Bible's early transmission history, yet its testimony has typically been ignored or misunderstood by text critics. This study examines the history of the book of Acts in Ethiopia and reconstructs its earliest attainable text, which then is assessed using the latest text-critical methods. It therefore provides a solid base for interpreting the data of this key witness and lays the groundwork for future text-critical work in Ethiopic and other early versions.

The Gospel According to Matthew, 1999 The publication of the King James version of the Bible, translated between 1603 and 1611, coincided with an extraordinary flowering of English literature and is universally acknowledged as the greatest influence on English-language literature in history. Now, world-class literary writers introduce the book of the King James Bible in a series of beautifully designed, small-format volumes. The introducers' passionate, provocative, and personal engagements with the spirituality and the language of the text make the Bible come alive as a stunning work of literature and remind us of its overwhelming contemporary relevance.

Ethiopian Bible Names Dictionary Markos Negusie, 2017-11-16 This dictionary introduces a list of about 2,500 names from the Bible. The names given to our lord Jesus (Iyesus), prophets, apostles, people and places are briefly defined, interpreted and translated. It is understood that, most biblical names are assigned to the character in relation to the roles they play in the biblical events. This dictionary is based on a research on the origins and secret messages of spiritual languages. Basic understandings and interpretations of ancient Ethiopian languages (Amharic, Ge'ez...) are the primary foundations of this research. As an outline it may help you to pay attention that...The English word 'The' has the same meaning as the Ethiopish 'በ' (Ze), which is an article; example the (በ)Ethiopia, በበበ በበበበበ በበበ በበበ etc; Words like 'Alphabet ~ በበበበበ Ambassador ~ በበበበበበ Festival ~ በበበ በበበ and so on' are originated from the Ethiopish languages. English word 'Mystery' and the Ethiopish 'mistir' (ጠስታረ) have the same meaning- secret. The name 'Andréa's' and the word 'enderasie' (ሰላም ጸሐይ) have the same meaning-'manly'. The English word 'Call' is derived from the Ethiopish 'Qal' (ሰላም) meaning voice, word, message... The name 'Simon' is from the word 'smane' (ሰላም) meaning hears me, listen... The word 'Amen' is from the word, Aman (ሰላም); the meaning is faithful and peaceful unity. The word 'Wine' is derived from the Ethiopish word 'Weyn' (ሰላም), an alcoholic drink.
