Burton, 2021-02-02 Students are drawn to mobile technologies such as iPads and smartphones because of the sheer endless possibilities of the digital worlds they hold. But how can their potential for stimulating the imagination be effectively used in the music classroom to support students' development of musical thinking? Countering voices that see digital technologies as a threat to traditional forms of music making and music education, this collection explores the many ways in which hand-held devices can be used to promote student learning and provides teachers with guidance on making them a vital presence in their own classrooms. Creative Music Making at Your Fingertips features 11 chapters by music education scholars and practitioners that provide tried-and-true strategies for using mobile devices in a variety of contexts, from general music education to ensembles and from K-12 to college classrooms. Drawing on their own experiences with bringing mobile devices and different music apps into the classroom, contributors show how these technologies can be turned into tools for teaching performance, improvisation, and composition. Their practical advice on how pedagogy and mobile technologies can be aligned to increase students' creative engagement with music and help them realize their musical potential makes this book an invaluable resource for music educators who want to be at the forefront of pedagogical transformations made possible by 21st-century

Jack Of All Master Of One Chanakya Shukla,2021-08-11 We might have often heard of this popular old saying that a jack of all could become the master of none. This is indeed a fact, some really experienced man might have said this because he might have tried his hands in all places he could which resulted from him becoming ultimately a master in none. Whenever we read motivational quotes and motivational speeches from all the great people in the world, we are advised to focus. That means we should concentrate on doing one specific thing where we want to achieve, and it helps. In fact, I have experienced and advised my juniors to do the same. I use to tell them that now you are a beginner and find yourself nowhere but as soon you spend a decade in a skill, an industry, a field of study, a sport, a profession, a business, or simply practicing a hobby; you reach somewhere and nobody in this world can take it away from you be it anywhere on this planet or elsewhere. Teachers deliver a lecture from half an hour to more but it is always the self-study, the amount of study you do without being told by anybody; it makes you the man you want to be in the future. The teacher (or Guru) again helps you to focus on one thing while there are millions of parallel events going around the world to lose your focus and waste your time. You might find yourself succeeding in various distinct fields, yes it is very much possible. Humans can create and extend the boundaries themselves but then you often find yourself not the number one. You could be good but can't be the best in the world in everything, there is always someone practicing the same skills and getting better than you in some part of the world and it should be appreciated with acceptance. And, here what this popular saying makes sense is that the Jack of all is a Master of None. But my all-loving readers I would like to share my story here where I grew up learning this phrase in schools and from my parents. During my interaction with the portion of the world in form of the people that I met, I found this phrase made sense, and sometimes it did not. A millennial like me always look for a modification of complex things and truths of life and death to make it simple. My late father who was a businessman used to tell his employees that in this competing World one has to be an all-rounder moreover has to master one particular skill to stand out in the crowd or must say simply survive. Luckily, I was there in his office to hear him telling this to some employee. I was very young when he left this world and all of a sudden I had a different perspective on life. Cheating people, telling lies for small profits of money, frauds, bullying, sexual exploitation, grudges over communities, body shaming, superstition, greediness, impersonation, racial discrimination, depression, and much more that exists on earth and we often ignore it while people have justifications for it. I know already there are a number of books and educating videos available out there then why I am writing this one? Because this is my journey of learning ten different skills after the death of my father and I earned a little or more amount of money utilizing these skills. I could be a victim or a guilty while all above said evils surrounding me, but I was guided well by my mentors, parents, and elders moreover, I accepted that guided path and followed it to get benefited out of it and become an example that the world could learn from, a good example probably. With changes in time and situations, now if a father teaches his son driving a car it won't make a skill worth enough to make a living. Since now most of the people work from home moreover most of the people know themselves that how to drive a car. People need to learn more skills for a better tomorrow. My father used to take a walk with me in the evening after dinner when he used to tell me how children make their parents proud or shamed out of their doings. I hope this reached out to him somehow in a good way. ~ CHANAKYA SHUKLA
