Amy's Answering Machine Amy Borkowsky,2002-02-15 Does your mother call you in a panic whenever there's a storm warning for your area? Does she act as though it's her duty to alert you to every health story on the news? Have you ever been briefly out of touch with your mother only to find she's phoned everyone short of the National Guard to track you down -- or, just maybe, are you that mother? Take comfort in knowing you're not alone, as Amy Borkowsky shares more than a decade's worth of maddening phone messages from her hilariously overprotective mom. Based on the hit CD of the same name, Amy's Answering Machine features actual messages in which Amy's mom warns her not to wear a red bathrobe because a friend's grandson said that red is a gang color...advises her not to get a cat because what if you finally found a nice guy and he was allergic?...cautions her not to wear crepe-soled shoes because they were just saying on the news that if you're ever in a plane crash, crepe is no good if you have to go down the slide. Amy also reveals the stories behind the messages and shares calls not available on CD, each one brimming with the worry and annoying comments only a loving mother could dish out. The same warnings and suggestions that had Amy cringing are sure to have you doubled over with laughter. But before you turn the page, take some advice from Amy's mom: Make sure you have plenty of reading light, because squinting causes crow's feet.

Meet Shawn Wayne. He's single, employed, hard-bodied, a former All-American, and looking for his ideal woman. According to his best friend, Kelly, however, he may have to expand his universe a little to find the right woman. Shawn's search for the woman of his dreams leads to dating misadventures ranging from nightmare blind dates and underage flings to encounters with married swingers. Held hostage by today's technology, where dating has become a complex web of answering machines and cell phones, he finds the rules have changed, and that he now has to contend with six different types of women:1s--I just got out of a really bad relationship.2s--I'm not interested in a relationship. I just have friends.3s--What is it you said you do for a living?4s--Men are dogs.5s--My biological clock is ticking. I need a man.6s--I'm single, I'm available, and, yes, I'm interested.Will Shawn find his 6? Read this hilarious Blackboard and Emerge bestseller and find out.
