Superior Apartments Ira Wagner,2015-05-22 In Superior Apartments, photographer Ira Wagner looks at the Bronx as it exists now. For much of its history since becoming part of New York City, the Bronx, with its solid brick apartment buildings and homes, was a step up the ladder for recent immigrants. But by the 1970s, the Bronx became synonymous with urban decline. Yet, since that time the Bronx has changed. New York City historian Kenneth T. Jackson states that the Bronx is again a place where many immigrants can get started on the ladder of life and success. Superior Apartments is not a photographic study of urban ruin and decline. Instead, it is a presentation of the range, chaos, irony, richness and beauty of the urban landscape.
