When Art Meets Money Franz Schultheis, Stephan Egger, Erwin Single, Thomas Mazzurana, 2015 The Art Basel is more than just a fair in the commercial sense of the word, more than a temporally and spatially concentrated gathering of dealers offering their goods for sale to interested buyers. It is at the same time the site of a display of holy goods in the presence of thousands and thousands of believers, a pilgrim's goal for the ritualized adoration of modern and contemporary art. It is also, and for precisely this reason, the decisive witness of the upheaval marking a radical change in that relationship between art and money - with all the consequences, not least for the evaluation of what is to be regarded as genuine art. The present study, the result of several years of sociological field work, attempts to draw a picture of this change as perceived by the participants, the organizers of the fair, the gallerists, collectors, curators, art consultants and artists, as a central problem of the contemporary art scene. The authors, members of a research group of the University of St. Gallen, present in When Art meets Money a detailed study of the practice of the contemporary picture market, drawing upon Pierre Bourdieu's influential sociology of art.

Art Unlimited? Franz Schultheis, Erwin Single, Raphaela Köfeler, Thomas Mazzurana, 2016-03-31 Until recently still a blank spot on the world map of art, China today occupies one of the top positions in the rankings of the global art market and has moved into the center of the speculations and the covetousness of its protagonists. But what is really happening on the spot, beyond the ethnocentric distortions of the Western viewpoint? What social representations and uses of art can be identified? A research team from the University of St. Gallen has taken up such questions in an ethnographical field research project which enables the actors in this emergent and nonetheless already market-dominated art field to have their say.

ART 31 BASEL Basel Art Staff, 2000-06 Art Basel is considered the world's leading fair for modern and contemporary art. The fair catalogue presents the most comprehensive overview of offerings on the international art market as well as information about this important annual art world event. An indispensable reference and a popular collector's item for art lovers, the catalogue includes over 600 illustrations, detailed information on the 250 leading galleries in Europe, North and South America, Asia, and Australia, an index of 1,000 prominent artists and the galleries representing them, an index of art publications from all over the world, and essays on the development of art and the art market by important authors such as Harald Szeemann and Christian von Faber-Castell. The dates for this year's fair are June 21-26, 2000. This is an essential reference for all serious art professionals and collectors.

Owens, Laura Scott Rothkopf, 2017-01-01 A richly illustrated, expansive mid-career survey of the stand-out American artist's pioneering and influential work, with each copy featuring a unique silk-screen cover printed in Owens's studio Since the early 1990s, Laura Owens (b. 1970) has challenged traditional assumptions about figuration and abstraction in her pioneering approach to painting. Created in close collaboration with the artist on the occasion of her mid-career survey at the Whitney Museum of American Art, this inventive and comprehensive book features an incisive introduction by Scott Rothkopf, critical essays, literary texts, and short commentaries on a variety of subjects related to Owens's broad interests, which range from folk art and needlework to comics and wallpaper. Reflections by more than twenty of Owens's fellow artists, collaborators, assistants, dealers, family members, and friends offer an array of perspectives on her work at different periods in her life, beginning with her high school years in Ohio and ending with her current exhibition. A rich trove of more than a thousand images, drawn from the artist's personal archive and largely unpublished before now, includes personal correspondence, journals, academic transcripts, handwritten notes, source material, exhibition announcements, clippings, and installation photographs. Strikingly, each copy also features a unique silk-screen cover printed in Owens's studio, giving readers the opportunity to own an original work of art. Together, all of these elements provide a rare and intimate look at how an artist might make her way in the world as well as how art gets made, movements take hold, and relationships evolve over time.

Art 39 Basel Holger Steinemann, 2008 Art Basel is the largest and most important art fair in the world. This catalogue features over 300 color illustrations from Art 39 Basel and so offers the broadest survey of the international art market at the beginning of the twenty-first century. and essays on the development of art and the art market by important authors--who have in the past included Harold Szeemann and Christian von Faber-Castell. This is an essential reference for all serious art professionals and collectors.

Muslim Family Law in Western Courts Elisa Giunchi,2014-03-26 This book focuses on Islamic family law as interpreted and applied by judges in Europe, Australia and North America. It uses court transcriptions and observations to discuss how the most contentious marriage-related issues - consent and age of spouses, dower, polygamy, and divorce - are adjudicated. The solutions proposed by different legal systems are reviewed , and some broader questions are addressed: how Islamic principles are harmonized with norms based on gender equality, how parties bargain strategically in and out of court, and how Muslim diasporas align their Islamic worldview with a Western normative narrative.
