The Backpack Missionary's Daily Planner Kim Marie Johnson,2019-12-20 The Backpack Missionary's Daily Planner offers an important organizational tool for the traveling missionary. It offers space for everything you need in a compact size to easily fit within your purse or backpack.Contact InformationThe section includes space for Emergency Contacts, Church Contacts, and Family & Friends. There is also space for people that you meet during your missions. My Mission Supporters This section contains space for the names and contact information for your mission supporters and their contributions. There is even space to note whether you have sent a message of thanks.Prayer RequestsKeep a record of the people you are praying for. There is space for the date you began to pray and the date God answered your prayers.Importance DatesA calendar keeps important dates to remember. At a glance, see people to pray for, call and visit. You may begin your agenda on any day. Simply record the day and date and you are ready to go. The blank calendar pages cover a span of 2 years.Seize the Day!Keep a record of how you used your day in God's service. Record people you shared the Salvation plan with and the date they accepted SalvationNotes and ReflectionsThis might be a Bible Verse, a quote, or something that you want to remember about today. Perhaps it is a reminder that an important date is coming soon or that today is someone's special day.This section could also be used for photos or well wishes from friends, supporters, and people you meet in the field. Finally, everything at your fingertipsBegin your day with your Bible and this wonderful organizational tool. As with each of my Praise and Prayer Journals, I have asked God for the guidance to know what the Backpack Missionary's Daily Planner should contain. I hope that I have created a Planner that reflects the needs of your personal ministry.
