The Other Side Of The Game B Payne,2022-10-31 In a world where beautiful girls are given everything they want, Bianca is a pretty girl receiving none of the pretty girl benefits. Taking care of her little sister while trying to work and finish high school, life for her was anything but easy. During her senior year she meets Terrell, a handsome out of town hustler who spends money on her like there's no tomorrow. All he wants in return is her loyalty and compliance. Suddenly life doesn't seem bad. It isn't long before she realizes that with Terrell's money comes his demands and controlling ways. How far will Bianca go to please her man and how much of herself is she willing to compromise to live what she thinks is the life of luxury. Omar is a confident, smooth-talking mogul who acquires Bianca through a business deal with Terrell. Enamored with her from the moment they meet, he can't understand why a woman as beautiful as she is lets a low-life like Terrell use and abuse her. He spends their time together trying to show her the real life of luxury and convince her she's worth more than what a small-time dealer like Terrell has to offer. Bianca's caught between what now feels like true love and her loyalty to the man who saved her. But is the choice hers to make? Is Terrell even willing to give her back control of her life? When new elements come into play making Bianca's choice even more complicated she knows that, no matter what she chooses her life will never be the same again. Will she pick Love or Loyalty?
