Poems on Liberty ,2002 Poems on Liberty: Reflections for Belarus is an anthology of original poems broadcast on Radio Liberty in 2001. The music of Giuseppe Verdi accompanied the voices of authors and translators as, each evening for 365 consecutive days, they wove into verse their unique and very personal insights into the meaning of liberty at the dawn of the 21st century. Poets from Belarus and five continents, ranging in age from 10 to 92, among them Nobel prize winners and artists forced into exile, submitted their works for broadcast. This anthology consists of 122 selected poems from the original broadcasts. Liberty Library is a repository of select programs broadcast by Radio Free Europe/Radio Liberty's Belarus Service.

Contemporary Belarus Elena Korosteleva,Colin Lawson,Rosalind Marsh,2003-08-27 Belarus is unique among the states of the former Soviet bloc, in that after a decade of transition', the country remains stalled' and backward-oriented. Political and economic changes are characterised by half-measures, and recently a new suppression of dissent has been introduced; the country balances between the prospect of democracy and a retreat to authoritarianism. These developments contrast starkly with the many democratic changes in neighbouring states and suggest a possible alternative path for future development in Eastern Europe. This book provides a thorough overview of current developments in Belarus. It looks at historical, political, economic and social changes, and at international relations, especially relations with Russia and the European Union, considering all these factors both in their domestic and international contexts and defines the type of democracy, if any, which exists in Belarus, exploring the prospects for further democratisation.
