Mass Housing Miles Glendinning, 2021-03-25 This major work provides the first comprehensive history of one of modernism's most defining and controversial architectural legacies: the 20th-century drive to provide 'homes for the people'. Vast programmes of mass housing – high-rise, low-rise, state-funded, and built in the modernist style – became a truly global phenomenon, leaving a legacy which has suffered waves of disillusionment in the West but which is now seeing a dramatic, 21st-century renaissance in the booming, crowded cities of East Asia. Providing a global approach to the history of Modernist mass-housing production, this authoritative study combines architectural history with the broader social, political, cultural aspects of mass housing – particularly the 'mass' politics of power and state-building throughout the 20th century. Exploring the relationship between built form, ideology, and political intervention, it shows how mass housing not only reflected the transnational ideals of the Modernist project, but also became a central legitimizing pillar of nation-states worldwide. In a compelling narrative which likens the spread of mass housing to a 'Hundred Years War' of successive campaigns and retreats, it traces the history around the globe from Europe via the USA, Soviet Union and a network of international outposts, to its ultimate, optimistic resurgence in China and the East – where it asks: Are we facing a new dawn for mass housing, or another 'great housing failure' in the making?

Tall Wood Buildings Michael Green, Jim Taggart, 2020-03-09 Tall wood buildings have been at the foreground of innovative building practice in urban contexts for a number of years. From London to Stockholm, from Vancouver to Melbourne timber buildings of up to 20 storeys have been built, are under construction or being considered. This dynamic trend was enabled by developments in the material itself, prefabrication and more flexibility in fire regulations. The low CO2 footprint of wood - often regionally sourced - is another strong argument in its favour. This publication explains the typical construction types such as panel systems, frame and hybrid systems. An international selection of 13 case studies is documented in detail with many specially prepared construction drawings, demonstrating the range of the technology.

Et liv å leve Aase Marie Dahle, 2022-10-06 Alle mennesker er ikke født med en sølvskje i munnen. I alle fall ikke jeg. Alle mennesker har ikke hatt en trygg og omsorgsfull oppvekst. I alle fall ikke jeg. Alle mennesker har ikke mot og styrke til å bekjempe urettferdighet, løgn eller kyniske maktpersoner. Men det har jeg. Hvordan kan tillitsvalgte personer misbruke sine verv for å berike seg selv, og hvor langt er mennesker villig til å gå for å skjule sine synder? Jeg så det. Hva kan skje bak høye murer i et fengsel? Blir lover og regler fulgt? Jeg varslet. Ikke alle mennesker har skrevet sitt liv. Det gjorde jeg. Og hvem er jeg? Jeg er verken en kjendis eller Mor Theresa. Jeg er en av oss fra allmuen. En av oss som har fått et liv i gave. Et liv å leve. Og ingen er som alle andre. Aase Marie Dahle er utdannet fengselsbetjent, journalist og fotograf. Hun har studert litteraturvitenskap ved universitetet i Bergen, og har 15 års arbeidserfaring i kriminalomsorgen. Dahle har de siste 14 år jobbet offshore, og debuterte som forfatter i 2022 med biografien; Ingen er som alle andre.

Frank Aarebrot Liv Skotheim, Martin Larsen Hirth, 2018-10-20 Frank Aarebrot etterlot seg et tomrom i norsk offentlighet da han døde i 2017. Hvordan ble han den unike formidleren han var? «Franken» drevet av stor nysgjerrighet og glede over å formidle kunnskap. Studentene elsket ham, og han ble nasjonalt kjent og hyllet gjennom valgsendinger og seersuksesser som «200 år på 200 minutter». Han var respektert i politiske kretser fordi han alltid sa sin ærlige, uavhengige mening. Basert på nærmere 170 intervjuer med folk som kjente Frank, deriblant hans nærmeste familie og venner, statsministeren og andre samfunnsstopper. Med forord av Knut Olav Åmås, direktør i Stiftelsen Fritt Ord. Liv Skotheim (f. 1977) er journalist og debattleder i Bergens Tidende. Hun er utdannet medievitner fra Universitetet i Oslo, og har jobbet i Aftenposten og BT siden 2005. Skotheim samarbeidet med Frank Aarebrot i forbindelse med en rekke debatter. Martin Larsen Hirth (f. 1984) er energianalytiker i Greensight. Han var tidligere journalist i Sysla og arrangementsansvarlig i Bergens Tidende. Hirth er master i sammenliknende politikk fra Universitetet i Bergen og var i 2009 leder for Sampolkonferansen.

Through two years of anthropological fieldwork in the suburbs of Bergen, Norway's second largest city, the author has listened carefully to the conversations of young working class women. In this intimate study, she examines how the lives of these women are shaped, what dignity and self-respect means to them, and how they define their identities as women. She discusses such topics as the rising rate of divorce, women's culture, and how these women play a crucial role in creating and maintaining a cultural life style for their families.
