The Mobile Revolution - Andrew Pearson, 2011-04 Written by Andrew Pearson, the Director of Marketing at Qualex Consulting Services, Inc., and a five-year Internet and mobile marketing veteran, The Mobile Revolution - Second Edition details how the mobile phone is not only transforming the way people communicate with each other but also how advertisers and marketers are communicating with them. The Mobile Revolution - Second Edition continues the mobile discussion that began with the first edition, and this edition contains a new chapter about the exploding world of mobile apps. The Mobile Revolution - Second Edition shows readers how mobile technology's inherent ability to create a highly personal, instant two-way communication between purchasers - or potential purchaser - and seller is something that has never been seen before in the history of commerce. It reveals how companies must create a multi-screen, always on strategy that follows their audience throughout their digital day, or possibly lose their customers altogether.

Mobile Minded Geert Lovink, 2002 Another thought provoking collection of biting visual commentary on a 21st century social and business phenomenon: the mobile phone. Is the body becoming our interface?

Are there mobile borders? Does the notion that we are linked to virtually every communications medium through handheld technology mean that no place is sacred? All these questions and more are posed in Mobile Minded, a brilliant new manifesto in which Mieke Gerritzen (Everyone is a Designer and Catalogue of Strategies) and friends express their varied and sometimes diametrically opposed opinions in short, sharp maxims, questions and declarations. The mobile phone is one of the most powerful communications media ever to have emerged. It has changed the face of business throughout the developed world and changed the way in which hundreds of millions of people socially interact.
