Language Learning Accelerator Shannon L. Kennedy, 2017-06-16 You just don't have the time you'd like to learn a language. There's school or work, your family, and other various activities you need to juggle on a daily basis. And as much as you'd like to finally learn a language, you're just too tired or too busy. You feel like you'll never be able to fit language learning into your schedule. But here's the thing... You CAN find the time to learn a new language. Not convinced? Well, it's true... And I know that for a fact because I myself have done it. Over the last few years, I learnt several languages while working a full time job, performing as a professional musician, running my blog, EuroLinguiste, and maintaining my social/family life. It took me some time to figure out how I'd fit learning into my schedule, but after some experimenting I found several strategies that worked for me. And now I'd like to share them with you to help you save time. I created Language Learning Accelerator to share the exact strategies and tools that I use to be a productive language learner. I haven't always effectively managed my time, but with the experience of learning and maintaining close to ten languages, I've picked up a lot of tactics to change that. A lot of the techniques out there didn't work for me, so I decided to try a few things on my own. And that's when everything changed. With a full-time job, a full-time career, and as a new parent, figuring out how and when to study languages is a challenge. I've made a lot of mistakes along the way, but I've finally found a system that works for me. But I don't want you to spend all that time going through the same long and frustrating process that I did, which is why I've worked hard to include all of the best practices to fit language learning in to your busy schedule. Language Learning Accelerator combines the most impactful productivity strategies with tons of language learning tips to provide you with a time management system that will help you become a more effective language learner.
