Through the blogging platform information can be shared, viewed, commented upon and discussed. Get everything you need to know here. Blogging can be an effective way to get the important recognition needed for the success of any business endeavor. Using the blogging tool to create a buzz can usually do elevate the business position to a more visible level and this of course can in turn act positively towards creating an effective advertising campaign for the said endeavor. Such campaigns if done on a positive note can be both very helpful and also cost effective. Ideally the individual's blog should be designed to reflect the niche it intends to cater to as effectively and informatively as possible while all the time maintaining the element of attention grabbing and be current. It should also be user friendly. This important fact should not be overlooked as many blogs which are not user friendly will end up becoming redundant and thus defeating its purpose in getting the content noticed. Choosing a platform and blog name that is going to get the attention of the intended target audience also has its merits. Though still considered a little controversial in its delivery and designed content make up the blog is also popularly used as an advertising tool for sponsored posts. These usually get posted in the form of feedback, reviews, opinions, videos and many other avenues that are created through the information passed between parties with some level of vested interest.

Millionaire Bloggers Stephen Akintayo, 2016-05-28 This book will teach what you need to know about blogging from A to Z. WHAT IS BLOGGING? The word blogging was generated from the word blog which is short for weblog. According to the dictionary a blog is a website on which someone writes about personal opinions, activities and experiences. It also contains online personal reflections, comments and hyperlinks provided by the writer. A blog is a personal online journal that is often updated and used for general public consumption. A blog is a combination of content that is organized repetitively to give an illusion.

It's also a website that allows users to ere their views, opinions and contributions on various subjects. This content can take the form words, audio, video, or images.WHY DO YOU NEED A BLOG?* You need a blog to engage people in knowledge sharing, reflection, and debate which often attract a large and dedicated readership. * Blogs are becoming an important component of the Internet landscape, providing authors and readers with an avenue for unedited expression, reaction, and connection, without the official mediated chat rooms or formal media outlets.* The simplicity of creating and maintaining blogs enables open discussions which can be created immediately, making blogs an ideal venue for far-reaching discussions among the Internet environs on new or timely topics. * Blogs foster the growth of communities and are dynamic ways to evaluate and critise self-created knowledge. A blog can be built manually through writing the post, uploading to a website video then publishing. A blog can also be managed by software, sometimes called a CMS (Content Management System), where a lot of the features are automatically created and populated.

The internet is also filled with lots of absurd promises on how you can transform from an ordinary 8-5 working guy to an internet celebrity who tours the world as his or her blog makes him or her money on autopilot. In as much as some of these stories are true, there is a huge difference between those who hear the tales of these millionaire bloggers and those who actually become millionaire bloggers. This doesn't mean that those who don't make millions of dollars annually from blogging are losers; you don't have to make millions of dollars from blogging to be considered a success story. This doesn't mean that making hundreds or thousands of dollars from blogging is any easier; in fact, you will be amazed that a vast majority of bloggers don't make any money from blogging. Many actually end up giving up blogging altogether while many of those who continue blogging never understand how they can monetize their blog leave alone driving traffic to the blog. So, what do you think would make your blog any different given that a new blog is established every half a second? You could easily end up getting lost deep in the volumes of other pages such that no one ever visits your site unless you give them the direct link to the blog then ask them to visit. With a new blog established every half a second, you need to do something that makes you stand out from the many others that end up not making any money. Irrespective of the niche you settle for, it is best to understand how to start and grow a money making blog. I will take you through a step by step process to help you transform your newly established blog or the blog you are thinking of establishing to a money making venture. Although the incomes will differ for different people based on different reasons, I assure you that you will make money when you follow this guide. Triumphant: How to Write a Winning Blog Rafa Osuna,2016-08-15 Are you thinking about starting a blog? Do you already have a blog but you're just not quite sure what to do with it? If the answer is yes, then this book is for you. What exactly will you find in this book? Well, how about I start by telling you what you won't find. In this book you're not going to find cheap blogging philosophy. You know, the kinds of tips and tricks people try to sell you even when they themselves have never had any blogging success. In this book you're not going to find a "Blogging 101" type of course on the technical details of how to start a blog. In today's world, blog creation platforms are so intuitive and easy to use that it wouldn't even be worth your time to read a book like that. So if that's the kind of thing you're looking for, I'd recommend you check out one of the many "How to create a blog" tutorials that you can find on YouTube, among other places. Another thing you won't find in this book is a magic formula for "how to become a blogging millionaire in two weeks." Believe me, if anyone offers you anything that sounds like that, run away...immediately. What you will find in this book is a short summary of what I've written in my personal blog (El Último Blog) over the last ten years. In these ten years I have not only maintained my own personal blog, but I have also directed a blogging network with over 50 other writers, I've given conferences and taught classes on blogging, I've contributed to various book publications, etc. What I hope to share with you in this book, as a summary of these past ten years of blogging, is a selection of 15 articles which I believe reflect, in a clear and concise way, everything you'll need in order to write a winning blog. These articles will be just 15 out of the 2,000 plus articles that I have published over the years. I've taken the original versions and touched them up a bit, so that while the
