Meth Epidemic in America: Two New Surveys of U. S. Counties Bill Hansell,2008-04 In an effort to better understand the effect of methamphetamine (meth) abuse in America, the National Association of Counties conducted two national surveys in late 2005 to gauge the impact on health services. The results of these two surveys show that the meth epidemic has a broad impact on county provided services & continues to devastate America's communities. Two key results support these conclusions. The first survey showed that there are more meth-related emergency room visits than for any other drug. The second survey showed that the need for treatment programs for meth addiction is growing dramatically. Illustrations.

The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne, Volume 2 John Donne,2000 Based on an exhaustive study of the manuscript and print history of Donne's poetry, this edition presents newly edited critical texts of the poems and a comprehensive digest of the critical-scholarly commentary on them from Donne's time forward. Textual introductions briefly locate the poems in the context of Donne's life or poetic development, outline the 17th-century textual history of the poems, and sketch the treatment of the text by modern editors. A detailed textual apparatus presents variants collated from many sources and traces the lines of textual transmission--Provided by publisher.

Biotechnology in Japan Rolf D. Schmid,2012-12-06 Biotechnology in Japan is a complete guide to economic, scientific and regulatory aspects of Japanese research centres and companies. Profiles for more than 400 private Japanese companies and almost 200 universities and research institutes are given in great detail. Ministries providing research guidelines and ongoing research projects are analysed. The book is the first comprehensive source in the English language and is of particular interest to consultants, managers and researchers seeking cooperation with Japanese partners.
