Harold V. Bozell

Living on Fire Daniel Kelly, 2014-03-25 “A triumph . . . A moving, beautifully written biography.” —National Review From the beginning, L. Brent Bozell seemed destined for great things. An extraordinary orator, the young man with fiery red hair won a national debate competition in high school and later was elected president of Yale’s storied Political Union, where his debating partner was his close friend William F. Buckley Jr. In less than a decade after graduating from Yale, Bozell helped Buckley launch National Review, became a popular columnist and speaker, and, most famously, wrote Barry Goldwater’s landmark book The Conscience of a Conservative. But after setting his sights on high political office, Bozell took a different route in the 1960s. He abruptly moved his family to Spain; he founded a traditional Catholic magazine, Triumph, that quickly turned radical; he repudiated on religious grounds the U.S. Constitution; he made it his mission to transform America into a Catholic nation; he led the nation’s first major antiabortion protest (featuring a militant group known as the Sons of Thunder); he severed ties with his erstwhile friends from the conservative movement, including Buckley (who was also his brother-in-law). By the mid-1970s, Bozell had fallen prey to bipolar disorder and alcoholism, leading life as if “manacled to a roller coaster.” Biographer Daniel Kelly tells Bozell’s remarkable story vividly and with sensitivity in Living on Fire. To write this book, Kelly interviewed dozens of friends and family members and gained unprecedented access to Bozell’s private correspondence. The result is a richly textured portrait of a gifted, complex man—his triumphs as well as his struggles.

L. Brent Bozell: Volume I L. Brent Bozell III, 2015-02-19 L. Brent Bozell and Tim Graham write a nationally syndicated political column for Creators Syndicate. This is a collection of the very best of their column from January to June of 2014.

Stops Along the Way L. Brent Bozell III, 2021-12-07 Stops

Along the Way tells tales of ten red-headed Catholic children raised on a farm in the '60s, just seventy miles from our nation's capital yet so rural that they could be welcomed by both the KKK and a diminutive black man who would become part of the family; attending high school in the '70s in another country on another continent alone with two brothers, free to explore mysterious castles and watch gripping bullfights while enrolled in a school built in the Middle Ages; working in the '80s in the most successful political enterprise of its time, yet forgotten just one generation later; shooting commercials in war zones while accused of starting a war; and have you ever wondered what it was like to take off on one airplane from inside a cornfield, or look out the window of another and watch a rocket ship fly by? Stops Along the Way tells all this, and so much more—timeless stories that are the perfect antidote for today's poisonous headlines.

Weapons of Mass Distortion L. Brent Bozell, 2004-07-06
Could Al Franken and his left-wing cronies possibly be right? Is liberal media bias just a myth propagated by conservatives, and have the mainstream media actually swung to the right? Absolutely not. In the new book Weapons of Mass Distortion, L. Brent Bozell III—founder and president of the Media Research Center, America's largest and most respected media watchdog organization—presents the definitive account of how liberal bias in the news industry is alive and well. But here's the thing: The liberal media are headed for a downfall. Bozell demonstrates how their monopoly on information is at last coming to an end, in large part because journalists continue to deny the bias that infects their news coverage. His unrivaled expertise allows him to show readers exactly how the media landscape is changing—and to expose the even bigger changes that are coming. Marshaling an astonishing amount of evidence, Bozell documents exactly how the news media deliberately attempt to set the national agenda through their slanted coverage. In the process he destroys the arguments that Franken and many other left-wing commentators have put forward regarding media bias. Weapons of Mass Distortion also reveals:

- How the liberal media's slanted coverage of President George W. Bush will play a huge role in the 2004 elections
- Why liberals' claims about the influence of Fox News and the "conservative media" are wrong—and deliberately misleading
- How the mainstream press has waged war on the war on terrorism
- Never-before-told stories of how leading journalists, behind the scenes, betray the liberal bias they so forcefully deny in public—incidents that Bozell has witnessed firsthand
- How the same journalists who condemn the Right for "hate speech" regularly launch (and get away with) vicious personal attacks on conservatives
- Clear evidence that the major news outlets are hemorrhaging viewers, readers, and listeners precisely because of their liberal bias

By dominating the news media for so long, liberals have been able to control what we see and hear. But as Bozell makes clear, the Left will lose that control soon enough.

Unmasked L. Brent Bozell III, Tim Graham, 2019-06-04

Lecturer, syndicated columnist, television commentator, debater, marketer, businessman, bestselling author, publisher and activist, L. Brent Bozell III is one of the most outspoken and effective national leaders in the conservative movement today. As Founder and President of the Media Research Center, Mr. Bozell runs the largest media watchdog organization in America, and is uniquely positioned to offer this blazing critique of bias of all types in the national media and how it damages American democracy. By analyzing the coverage of the rise of Donald Trump and his presidency, Bozell explains all the different types of bias that can occur and exposes the insidious effects. ENEMIES LIST will also examine the campaigns for the 2018 midterms - and the results - which will provide the most comprehensive, detailed, and explosive analysis to date of how the media stokes divisiveness in American politics.

Conservative Thoughts L. Brent Bozell, 2016-02-12 L. Brent Bozell and Tim Graham write a nationally syndicated political column for Creators Syndicate. This is a collection of the very best of their column from July to December of 2014.

Stops Along the Way L. Brent Bozell, 2021-11-30 A book unlike any ever written by a leader of the conservative movement, because the stories told are unlike anything ever experienced by any public figure on the American scene today. Stops Along the Way tells tales of ten red-headed Catholic children raised on a farm in the '60s, just seventy miles from our nation's capital yet so rural that they could be welcomed by both the KKK and a diminutive black man who would become part of the family; attending high school in the '70s in another country on another continent alone with two brothers, free to explore mysterious castles and watch gripping bullfights while enrolled in a school built in the Middle Ages; working in the '80s in the most successful political enterprise of its time, yet forgotten just one generation later; shooting commercials in war zones while accused of starting a war; and have you ever wondered what it was like to take off on one airplane from inside a cornfield, or look out the window of another and watch a rocket ship fly by? Stops Along the Way tells all this, and so much more—timeless stories that are the perfect antidote for today's poisonous headlines.

Mustard Seeds L. Brent Bozell, 1991-01-01 Mustard Seeds is a collection of essays by L. Brent Bozell, Yale Law School graduate, former editor at National Review, founding editor of Triumph magazine, and, in 1985, founder of MisiUn Guadalupe, a program devoted to the assistance and evangelization of Hispanic immigrants. Section I, Early Sowings, begins with Bozell's early work with National Review; Section II, The Triumph Years, chronicles Bozell's development as a Catholic and as a Catholic thinker who formed an entire generation of Catholic thinkers; Section III, Heading Home, and Section IV, MisiU Guadalupe, include more recent essays, including Bozell's current writings about Christ's mercy. Throughout, Bozell's ideas are illuminated by a beautifully personal style which makes even the most difficult concepts strike home with life-changing force. Originally published in 1987 by Trinity Communications.

Mustard Seeds L. Brent Bozell, 2004-10 Mustard Seeds is the journal of a remarkable spiritual odyssey, the origin and destination points of which are identified in the volume's subtitle: A Conservative Becomes a Catholic. A reader not yet exposed to the intellectual clarity and rhetorical force of L. Brent Bozell's writings might be excused for responding to the subtitle with: Huh? A conservative becomes a Catholic? Can't you just be both? And if Bozell were alive to witness that response, he might comment: See what I mean? In the early '60s, L. Brent Bozell was a rising star---one of the brightest stars---in what was just then becoming known as the conservative movement. But long before the conservative movement apogee---Ronald Reagan's election to the presidency in 1980---Bozell had moved on. Mustard Seeds records the milestones along Bozell's progress to the heart, in the form of articles and speeches he wrote before, during and after his founding of the seminal Catholic journal of opinion, Triumph magazine (published from September 1966 until July 1975).

The Conscience of a Conservative Barry Goldwater, L. Brent Bozell Jr., 2019-08-24 Published in 1960 under the name of Arizona Senator Barry Goldwater, The Conscience of a Conservative is a widely influential and important book on the American conservative political movement. While the book was published under Goldwater's name, it was ghostwritten by L. Brent Bozell Jr., the brother-in-law of William F. Buckley and Goldwater's speech writer in the 1950s. The book was instantly popular and catapulted Goldwater, a Senator from Arizona when the book was published, into the national spotlight and helped him become the Republican nominee for President in 1964. Bozell's concise and thorough work details the conservative social and political positions on topics including education, labor unions, taxation, farming and agriculture policies, and civil rights. The book reignited the conservative movement and led to the rise of Reagan-style Republicanism in the 1980s. The Conscience of a Conservative defines what it means to be a modern political conservative in a way that is very accessible and understandable and continues to influence American political writers to this day. It remains an essential read for any student of political science and post-war American political history. This edition is printed on premium acid-free paper.

Happy Days Were Here Again William F. Buckley Jr., 2008-10-28 From the man who helped ignite the modern conservative movement, a delightful collection of eloquent and witty writings.

Temples for Cahokia Lords Timothy R. Pauketat, 1993-01-01

Collusion Brent Bozell, Tim Graham, 2013-07-09 Never before has the so-called mainstream media shown such naked political bias as in the 2012 presidential election. In 2012 Barack Obama was narrowly reelected, with naked support from a liberal media desperate to hide his failures, trumpet his accomplishments, and discredit his GOP rivals. Bachmann, Perry, Cain, Gingrich, Santorum: one by one the media took them apart using hidden-camera exposés, innuendo from anonymous accusers, repetition of harmful sound bites, and irrelevant—even untrue—storytelling. As soon as Mitt Romney emerged as the Republican Party's nominee, the liberal media went to work in earnest. They repeated Obama's campaign caricatures that Romney terrified his family dog, enjoyed firing people, and was nothing more than a willing tool of wealthy radical-right extremists. The Washington Post published a 5,400-word exposé on the allegation that in 1965 he may have pinned down a boy and cut his hair. Those same Post readers were then treated to 5,500 words on Barack Obama's lifelong love of basketball. Unquestionably, 2012 was the year when the liberal news media did all in their power to steal the presidential election—and they arguably succeeded. Media Research Center Founder and President Brent Bozell and MRC Director of Media Analysis Tim Graham provide the dramatic and conclusive evidence to prove this point—and show conservatives how to put an end to the leftist media agenda threatening democracy itself.
