The Heritage of Jack Bush Ken Carpenter, Robert McLaughlin Gallery, 1981

Alan Bush, Modern Music, and the Cold War Joanna Bullivant, 2017-08-10 The first major study of Alan Bush, this book provides new perspectives on twentieth-century music and communism. British communist, composer of politicised works, and friend of Soviet musicians, Bush proved to be 'a lightning rod' in the national musical culture. His radical vision for British music prompted serious reflections on aesthetics and the rights of artists to private political opinions, as well as influencing the development of state-sponsored music making in East Germany. Rejecting previous characterisations of Bush as political and musical Other, Joanna Bullivant traces his aesthetic project from its origins in the 1920s to its collapse in the 1970s, incorporating discussion of modernism, political song, music theory, opera, and Bush's response to the Soviet music crisis of 1948. Drawing on a wealth of archival sources, including recently released documents from MI5, this book constructs new perspectives on the 'cultural Cold War' through the lens of the individual artist.

I'm Not a Poet But I Write Poetry Tito Rajarshi Mukhopadhyay, 2012-06 Tito Rajarshi Mukhopadhyay, a leading poet (though he does not acknowledge it) and memoirist of the experience of autism, was born in India in 1988. Tito was diagnosed with severe autism at the age of three, but his mother Soma, with fierce hope and determination, devised an intensive rapid prompting method to teach Tito to read and write. In 2001, Tito and his mother came to the United States to begin work collaborating with doctors, re-searchers, and advocates in order to better understand and support individuals with autism. At a very early age, Tito began expressing himself in prose and poetry and numerous collections of his work have been published (see below). More recently, Tito has become a leading figure in the neurodiversity movement, challenging conventional measures of mental states and abilities. As Tito describes himself: Human beings have classified each other based on religion, country, disorders and of course in today's world their sexual choices. It is easy to recognize each other based on classification. Hence, doctors have classified me with Autism. Tito's life and work have been featured widely in the media, including Sixty Minutes, Good Morning America, The New York Times, Scientific American, National Geographic, PBS, CNN, Disability Studies Quarterly and in the documentaries Tito's Story (BBC, 1999) and A Mother's Courage (HBO, 2010) Tito now lives in Austin, Texas, where his mother directs the autism organization HALO <http://www.halo-soma.org> and Tito and his mother make frequent presentations to autism education and advocacy organizations nationwide.

The Bush Dyslexicon Mark Crispin Miller, 2002 A particularly astute analysis of the television coverage of the campaign, the election, and the political aftermath.--Newsday

Summary: Fooled Again BusinessNews Publishing, 2017-01-30 The must-read summary of Mark Crispin Miller's book: Fooled Again: How the Right Stole the 2004 Election and Why They'll Steal the Next One Too (Unless We Stop Them). This complete summary of Fooled Again by Mark Crispin Miller, a media studies professor and activist for media reform, shows that the presidential election of 2004 was marked by mass quantities of irregularities – machine malfunctions, logistical misinformation, bureaucratic red tape and overt partisan harassment. In his book, the author explains that all of these seemed to hamper the Democratic vote, and leave the Republican vote unaffected. In addition to this, the press remained oddly silent. This summary demonstrates how this form of electoral fraud is the reason for the outcome in 2004 and constitutes the new Republican strategy. Added-value of this summary: • Save time • Understand how electoral fraud may have changed the outcome of the 2004 presidential election • Expand your knowledge of American politics To learn more, read Fooled Again and discover the dark secret behind the Bush administration's electoral success and how the media may have abetted it.

Lazar & Jingles with Bunson in: Showers of Sorrow Kendrick Sims, 2021-12-28 From mirrors in strange places to stars ceasing to shine, friendships rekindle by fire's light. Elsewhere, in a forgotten realm separated by a dream, a monster builds a tribute to himself. Prisoners are held, gifts are exchanged, and a kiss is a demon's touch. The clock ticks toward twelve, but will it be morning or evening next? That question is not so easy to answer. Not for Bunson Bear nor for his new traveling companion. Elsewhere, flames of fire burn hot as a strangely aloof Lazar Lion presents his blue rose to a captive audience. Not to be outdone by a former friend and comrade in arms, Jingles presents his new toy to a friend not so near but very dear, so long as Jingles's new boss doesn't find out. Strange new friends join stranger old ones as Lazar, Jingles, and Bunson battle the pandemic that is the Shadow Tree. Joined in the fight against Captain M.T. and his monstrous marvels are Sylvester Alexander Koala, Abner Pennster, Sgt. Jack Thompson, Sgt. Joseph Smith, Sgt. Martin Stephens, and a host of Waterford's best (and worst) citizens. Their ultimate goal? Dethrone Captain M.T. as would-be world ruler and send him and the curse of the Shadow Trees to hell once and for all.

Muslims in the West after 9/11 Jocelyne Cesari, 2009-12-04 This book is the first systematic attempt to study the situation of European and American Muslims after 9/11, and to present a comprehensive analysis of their religious, political, and legal situations. Since 9/11, and particularly since the Madrid and London bombings of 2004 and 2005, the Muslim presence in Europe and the United States has become a major political concern. Many have raised questions regarding potential links between Western Muslims, radical Islam, and terrorism. Whatever the justification of such concerns, it is insufficient to address the subject of Muslims in the West from an exclusively counter-terrorist perspective. Based on empirical studies of Muslims in the US and Western Europe, this edited volume posits the situation of Muslim minorities in a broader reflection on the status of liberalism in Western foreign policies. It also explores the changes in immigration policies, multiculturalism and secularism that have been shaped by the new international context of the 'war on terror'. This book will be of great interest to students of Critical Security Studies, Islamic Studies, Sociology and Political Science in general. Jocelyne Cesari is an Associate at Harvard's Center for Middle Eastern Studies and the Center for European Studies, teaching at Harvard Divinity School and the Government Department, specializing in Islam and the Middle East.
