Sean Conway --- In 2019, Nick Butter became the first person to run a marathon in every country on Earth. This is Nick's story of his world record-breaking adventure and the extraordinary people who joined him along the way. On January 6th 2018, Nick Butter tied his laces and stepped out on to an icy pavement in Toronto, where he began to take the first steps of an epic journey that would see him run 196 marathons in every one of the world's 196 countries. Butter Molds & Stamps Barbara S. Van Vuren, Robert E. Van Vuren, 2000-01-01

Shores Beyond Shores Irene Hasenberg Butter, John D Bidwell, Kris Holloway, 2019-09-17 Irene's first person Holocaust memoir, Shores Beyond Shores, is an account of how the heart keeps its common humanity in the most inhumane and turbulent of times. Irene's childhood is cut short when she and her family are deported to Nazi-controlled prison camps and finally Bergen-Belsen, where she is a fellow prisoner with Anne Frank. Later forbidden from speaking about her experiences by the American relatives who cared for her, Irene is now making up for lost time. Irene has shared the stage with peacemakers such as the Dalai Lama, Desmond Tutu, and Elie Wiesel, and she considers it her duty to tell her story now and on behalf of the six million other Jews who have been permanently silenced. Book long description: Irene Butter's memoir of her experiences before, during and after the Holocaust is not a recounting of misery and tragedy; rather it is the genuine story of a girl coming to terms with a terrible event and choosing to view herself as a survivor instead of a victim. When the Dutch police knock on their door, Irene and her family are forced to leave their home and board trains meant for cattle. They are taken to Nazi-controlled prison camps and finally to Bergen-Belsen, where Irene is a fellow prisoner with Anne Frank. With limited access to food, shelter, and warm clothing, Irene's family needs nothing short of a miracle to survive. Irene's memoir tells the story of her experiences as a young girl before, during, and after the Holocaust, highlighting how her family came to terms with the catastrophe and how she, over time, came to view herself as a survivor rather than a victim. Throughout the book, her first-person account celebrates the love and empathy that can persist even in the most inhumane conditions. Irene's words send a poignant message against hate at a time when anti-Semitic, fascist and xenophobic movements around the globe are experiencing a resurgence. Irene, through her book, reminds us of the impact one person can have in choosing to follow the mantra, 'never a bystander' -- a phrase she adopted only 33 years ago, after her own voice was silenced by her cousins in the years after the Holocaust. Now, Irene Hasenberg Butter is a well-known inspirational speaker on her experiences during World War II.

Cooking Stetson Style Janet Beshara Stetson, 2021-12-27
Cooking Stetson Style: Recipes and Photography By: Janet Beshara Stetson Janet Beshara Stetson was born and raised in Tulsa, Oklahoma. She attended Oklahoma State University where she received a BS in home economics. After college, Janet moved to Dallas, Texas, where she worked in retail and then wholesale sales. She followed her food interests when she worked selling wholesale gourmet food items to specialty stores. She also made and sold wedding and party cakes. Janet taught classes demonstrating how to make fresh pasta. Janet inherited her passion for cooking from her mother, Madeline, who was a very good and adventuresome cook. Her dad, Wadea was from a large family of Lebanese descent. Janet's knowledge of Mediterranean cooking came from her mother and many aunts, uncles, and extended family, all of who consider food a cause for celebration. Janet married Barrett Stetson in 1978. Together they enjoyed entertaining family and friends at their home and did so regularly over the course of forty-plus years. This included hosting their son's wedding in their backyard. Barrett lived for two years in Switzerland as a boy. He developed an appreciation for fine pastries which Janet learned to bake. Barrett was an especially good grill master Barrett considered travel one of life's necessities. Because of that philosophy, Janet, Barrett, and their two boys, Neal and Glenn, traveled all over the United States and extensively in Europe. Janet's interest in food was enhanced by those experiences. She also honed her talent for photography, by which she documented their travels and memories. Many of those photographs are contained in this book. Now retired in Dallas, Janet and Barrett enjoy spending time with their sons, daughters-in-law, and grandkids. The couple has passed along their enthusiasm for cooking, entertaining, and travel to the next generation. Janet considers their grandchildren “the dessert of life.”
