Car Show Journal Car Journals,2019-11-21 Car Show Journal: Notebook for Recording Year, Make, Model, and Modifications, Great Gift for Automobile Enthusiasts This journal has space for you to write down the show (date and location) where you saw the car, as well as the make, model, and color of the car. Then you have space to get to the real point of the show-- the modifications and condition of the car. Did the owner totally rebuild the mechanical system to be identical to original condition, or did they trick it out with a totally new engine to make it a street rod? What is the attention to detail in the restoration? What was the reasoning behind the modification (a question you can ask yourself, but would never dream of asking the owner). On the other side, you have a Notes section where you can write things like contact information (if you get it), what you think the value of the car is, the overall quality, and if any of the parts used interest you for your own restoration work. What's the point of going to an amazing car show if you don't record and log your favorite parts?
