A Brief History of Central Christian Church of Denver, Colorado Rev. Canaan

Harris,2013-09-04 One of Colorado's oldest congregations, Central Christian Church of Denver was founded in 1873, before the territory became a state. Through the years, Central's membership has included some of the most prominent figures in Colorado history, including Governor John Routt and U.S. Senator Thomas Patterson. In the mid-twentieth century, Central was one of the largest congregations west of the Mississippi River. Throughout its long history, Central has occupied several different sanctuaries, and in 1971 relocated from downtown Denver to Cherry Creek South Drive, where it is currently located. A Brief History is the first written history of Central Christian, Denver since the centennial celebration in 1973.

Pursued Jud Wilhite,2013-02-05 Christian faith isn't blind obedience to a set of rules and regulations; it is entering into a relationship with a God who pursues us-not to punish, but to love. As the leader of Central Christian Church in the self-proclaimed Sin City, U.S.A., Jud Wilhite has seen it all, and he knows that no matter how far someone has strayed from God, God always remains in passionate pursuit. Using the biblical prophet Hosea's marriage, commanded by God, to an unfaithful prostitute as a metaphor for God's unwavering love, PURSUED compellingly illustrates God's plan for every person-to be freed to become his or her own unique self through intimate togetherness with the living, loving God.

The Trinity John M. Farrelly, O.S.B.,2005-01-04 The mystery of the Trinity is the central Christian belief that defines God's essence, God's ongoing love for humanity, and saving grace. Yet, over the past few centuries, especially in the West, Christians have either ceased believing in the Trinity or simply no longer recognize its relevance in their ecclesial or individual lives.

Intentional Churches Doug Parks,Bart Rendel,2020-03-24 Do you want to reignite your passion for the local church and see your congregation live out the Great Commission by growing and making disciples? If so, implementing the revolutionary Intentional Growth Planning™ operating system will benefit you, your church, and your community! Just as laptops and smart phones have an operating system, the church needs a biblically based operating system where its various programs and activities can effectively plug in to. In Intentional Churches, Doug Parks and Bart Rendel combine their 35 years of executive church leadership experience and unveil a proven and practical operational system that will help you: Clarify your unique vision Filter trends and new ideas through your mission Improve implementation abilities Maintain unity and alignment around what matters most This is a repeatable and transferable process any church can learn. Start today and be ready to go and grow through God's power for God's glory.

Worship from Home Canaan Harris,2020-07-29 Worship From Home is the story of how our church, a 147-year-old congregation in Denver, Colorado, found a new sense of purpose in the coronavirus pandemic. Our experience is so incredible we have to share it, for we believe it might herald a new revival or even a reformation of the church! Not that this hasn't happened before. For instance consider the consequence of the Plague on medieval Europe in the 14th century. Believed to have killed as many as 30-60% of Europe's population, the transformation of socio-economic relationships that followed resulted in the flowering of the Italian Renaissance and the invention of the printing press, providing the social context for the Protestant Reformation. Consequently, while we grieve the terrible suffering caused by the effects of COVID-19 - including job loss, economic recession, illness and death - as people of faith we trust the Lord will make a way somehow. And if what our church is even now experiencing doing Worship From Home is representative of what's happening elsewhere in the world, it may be that God is preparing us for a major shift in how we use technology similar to what happened 500 years ago. No doubt it helped that, at the same time we had to make this transition as a church from in-person to virtual gatherings, as someone active in the rooms of Alcoholics Anonymous, I had a role in my A.A. home-group helping to make the exact same transition. To my surprise, what I discovered is that not only were we able to continue the sacred work of recovery in the virtual space, there were even certain advantages to doing the work in this way! Being part of such a successful transition in 12-step recovery has encouraged me to think, Why can't we do the same for the church? Our project of Worship From Home and our dream for the potential of a church without walls draws on what I've seen to be the unqualified success of the online rooms of A.A. to provide an authentic, effective communal spiritual experience in a virtual space.

Witness at the Cross Amy-Jill Levine, 2021-12-28 Place yourself as a witness of the cross and determine what your own testimony will be! Experience Holy Friday from the perspective of those who watched Jesus die: Mary his mother; the Beloved Disciple from the Gospel of John; Mary Magdalene and the other women from Galilee; the two men, usually identified as thieves, crucified with Jesus; the centurion and the soldiers; Joseph of Arimathea and Nicodemus. Jews and Romans, friends and strangers, the powerful and the powerless, the hopeful and the despairing. The story of Jesus's death is not something we just read: we think about it, and we experience it; we hear the taunts of the soldiers, the priests, and the passersby even as we hear the famous "seven last words" from the cross. In Witness at the Cross, Amy-Jill Levine shows how the people at the cross each have distinct roles to play. Each Evangelist presents a distinct picture of the death of Jesus. Each portrays different individuals and groups of people at the cross, each offers different images and dialogues, and so from each, we learn how those meanings and messages cross the centuries to any who would come to the cross today. Each Gospel has its own story to tell, all the witnesses have their own memories, and every reader comes away with a new insight. The witnesses at the Crucifixion watch Jesus die, and we watch with them, and we watch them. And we come away transformed. Additional components are available for a six-week study include a DVD featuring Dr. Levine and a comprehensive Leader Guide.

The Povey Bros. Stained Glass Windows Barbara Beito, 2014-09-01 At the beginning of the 20th century the Povey Brothers of Portland, Oregon were designing and producing beautiful stained glass windows in the Northwestern United States. This book takes a look at those installed in Central Christian Church in Walla Walla, Washington.
