Happy New Year! Demi,1999 In a book that is itself a celebration, Demi explains the rituals and ideas behind the Chinese New Year festival. The last 15 days of the old year are spent cleaning and preparing. On the eve of the new moon, a special feast is prepared. Each food has meaning: pork, for example, brings wealth. The first 15 days of the new year are spent celebrating with lion dances, firecrackers, and other activities. Demi's characteristic tiny, lively figures illustrate each page, with several spreads devoted to small, labeled pictures identifying things associated with the holiday, such as 14 heavenly beings. Infused with joy and filled with information, this will be a fine purchase for most libraries.--Booklist

Chinese New Year Patricia Bjaaland Welch, 1997 Orange trees and plum blossoms. Strings of firecrackers and clusters of gold coins. Dinners with family and offerings to ancestors. No event in the Chinese calendar holds a greater importance, or is as richly celebrated, as the Lunar New Year. This complete introduction to the holiday explores its many symbols and rituals, tracing their history and meanings, and describing the differences in its celebration from Hong Kong to Taiwan, Singapore to mainland China. Beginning with notable days in the month preceding the holiday and extending to the Lantern Festival fifteen days into the New Year, the author guides the reader through the etiquette of gift-giving and the selection of special foods, holiday greetings, and popular decorations. Many Chinese traditions have been lost forever, but in communities throughout the world the anticipation, preparation, and celebration of the Lunar New Year endures.

Learn to speak the Chinese language? Enjoy Chinese restaurants & food? The Chinese New Year (猪年 / 猪年) is the most important of the holidays for the Chinese. It is defined to be the first day of the first month in the traditional Chinese calendar The Chinese New Year (猪年 / 猪年) is the first day of the first month in the traditional Chinese calendar. Unlike the Christian New Year which is based on a solar calendar the Chinese New Year is based on a traditional Chinese lunisolar calendar whose date indicates both the moon phase and the time of the solar year. A lunar month is around 2 days shorter than a solar month. In order to catch up with the solar calendar an extra month is inserted every few years. This is why according to the solar calendar the Chinese New Year falls on a different date each year.
