American Car Dealership Robert Genat,1999

What Car Dealers Don't Want You to Know Mark Eskeldson,1997 Describes frauds in automobile leasing contracts, explains a new car dealer's true cost, and discusses how to purchase an extended warranty and negotiate with salespeople.

What Car Dealers Won't Tell You Bob Elliston,1996 What car dealers won't tell you, auto industry insider Bob Elliston will. Whether you're leasing or buying, whether you're purchasing a new or used car, this comprehensive, user-friendly handbook will help buyers get the best deal in town. With checklists, tables and worksheets not found anywhere else, this book takes the uncertainty out of buying a car.

Strategies for Smart Car Buyers The Editors at Edmunds.com,Phillip Reed,2003-10-15 In the Internet age, Edmunds.com has emerged as the foremost authority on buying or leasing new or used cars. A key component to learning the industry's insider secrets involved sending an Edmunds.com editor to work undercover at multiple car dealerships. That information, along with knowledge gleaned from countless buying experiences and numerous dealership sources, has been honed into step-by-step buying and leasing strategies. Many car-buying books give tips and advice, but this book outlines proven buying scenarios, clearly explaining the consumer's course of action in simple terms. This complex and sometimes frightening process is demystified in a guide that covers the following subjects: * How car buying has become easier and faster than ever before * How to choose the right car for you * New car-buying strategies * Getting a used car bargain * Avoid leasing pitfalls and getting a good deal * Insuring your car for less money

The Art and Science of Running a Car Dealership Max Zanan,2019-10-09 This book is the pocket guide I wish I had when I first became a general manager of a Mitsubishi dealership in New York. Honestly, I am not the brightest star in the sky and made every mistake anyone could've possibly made. Unfortunately, I see dealer principals/general managers/general sales managers making the same mistakes today. The only difference is the time and consequences of these mistakes. I got my first GM gig in 2004. That was in the beginning days of the Internet, before millennials joined the workforce, and way before any viable disrupters entered the market space. It was a lot easier to get away with mistakes then. I don't think you could get away with making the same mistakes now. The stakes are too high. Automotive retail profit margins are tiny. According to the National Automobile Dealers Association (NADA), automotive net profit margin as of March 31, 2019 was merely 1.38 percent. As a result, every misstep makes it harder to stay in business.The car business desperately needs better leadership skills, understanding of social media, inventory management, fixed operations, and so much more. There is no educational barrier to the entry into car business, and there are only a handful of universities offering a major in car dealership general management, such as Liberty and Keiser. On top of that, only a tiny percentage of dealer principals and general managers attend the National Automobile Dealer Association University. That means that a vast majority of general managers receive training on the job, even if we took business-related classes in college. The auto business is a different animal. General information will only carry you so far. That is exactly why general managers make the same mistakes year after year. My goal is to break this vicious cycle and provide as much information as possible to ensure that automotive retail survives the disruptions we are witnessing today. We need to be ready for the next generation of car buyers, people who are more computer savvy and not afraid to search for better deals. According to surveys, 80 percent of millennials plan to buy a vehicle in the next five years. In fact, millennials worldwide will buy about 40 percent of all vehicles in the next decade. At the same time, they spend an average of 17 hours on line before going to a dealership. Are you ready for them?

Driving Sales Chris Martinez, 2016-09-15 Through sheer determination to succeed after almost dropping out of high school, finishing in 5 years and then failing to see college through, the car business unexpectedly found Chris Martinez in 2003. In his more than 13 years in the industry, he has assisted with the openings of 5 dealerships across the U.S. and helped turn a failing store into one of the Top 10 dealerships in the nation. Driving Traffic is a comprehensive roadmap that details what it takes to sell 1000+ cars per month---from the 4 critical strategies your sales team must master to the building blocks that took Charles Maund Toyota to 1000+ car sales per month to how to strategically drive customers to your dealership. This insider's guide is a must-read for any dealership ready to level up.
