The Comfort of Hardship Neelam Lashari, 2021-01-25 The Comfort of Hardship is a book that will acme the foremost matter that one faces while chasing his/her dreams. Nevertheless, each & every person is different from another person in numerous terms. Everyone has their uniqueness, and sometimes it turns out to be so hard to convince people to respect their personality. On the other hand, even in this modern era, people ask their children to emphasize on schoolings only, they never allow them to learn skills. This book will highlight the significance of learning the skills.

The Book of Comforts Kaitlin Wernet, Rebecca Faires, Cymone Wilder, Caleb Faires, 2019-04-09 When someone is grieving, what should you say? How can you help? How do you comfort without offering shallow platitudes? The Book of Comforts stands in the gap between suffering and hope, offering readers the abiding comfort found in Scripture and personal experience. The Book of Comforts is unlike other books on grief--with beautiful four-color interiors and an inviting format with brief devotions. Readers will gain: Long-term comfort from scripturally focused entries A deeper understanding of their grief, loss, and pain, and discover the richness of God's love A meaningful way to walk through hurt, heartache, challenges, and difficulty through the truth of God's Word Scripture deals plainly and honestly with suffering and simultaneously points people to the rich hope we find in God. The Book of Comforts is a beautiful and comforting gift for those in hard places--because even though we don't always know what to say, the gift of divine consolation is always helpful.

Companions in Suffering Wendy Alsup,2020-06-09 2020 The Gospel Coalition Book Award - Christian Living Have you experienced an ongoing trial that left you wrung out emotionally? Do you feel alone in your pain? Though suffering often leaves us feeling isolated, God invites us into the community of the Trinity and offers us many companions in Scripture. We experience loneliness alongside the exiled Israelites. We journey with David as he pleads to God for rescue. With Asaph we confess our unbelief. With Job we learn to lament. With Mary and Martha we learn to wait. In God's community, there is sweet fellowship, even in the hardest of circumstances. Journey in these pages with Wendy Alsup through her story of suffering, and more importantly, with the God who walks with us in the wilderness. This warm and contemplative book also includes a helpful appendix for those who companion a suffering loved one.

Suffering Paul David Tripp,2018-09-20 Sometimes life just hurts. Out of nowhere, death, illness, unemployment, or a difficult relationship can change our lives and challenge everything we thought we knew—leaving us feeling unable to cope. But, in the midst of all this pain and confusion, we are not alone. Weaving together his personal story, pastoral ministry experience, and biblical insights, best-selling author Paul David Tripp helps us trust God in the midst of suffering. He identifies traps to avoid in our suffering and points us instead to comforts to embrace. This raw yet hope-filled book will help you cling to God's promises when trials come and move forward with the hope of the gospel.

Comfort for Christians Arthur Pink, 2007-01-25 The work unto which the servant of Christ is called is many sided. Not only is he to preach the Gospel to the unsaved, to feed God's people with knowledge and understanding (Jer. 3:15), and to take up the stumbling stone out of their way (Isa. 57:14), but he is also charged to cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and show My people their transgression (Isa. 58:1 and cf. 1 Tim. 4:2). While another important part of his commission is stated in, Comfort ye, My people, said your God (Isa. 40:1). What an honorable title, My people! What an assuring relationship: your God! What a pleasant task: comfort ye My people! A threefold reason may be suggested for the duplicating of the charge. First, because sometimes the souls of believers refuse to be comforted (Psa. 77:2), and the consolation needs to be repeated. Second, to press this duty the more emphatically upon the preacher's heart, that he need not be sparing in administering cheer. Third, to assure us how heartily desirous God himself is that His people should be of good cheer (Phil. 4:4). God has a people, the objects of His special favor: a company whom He has taken into such intimate relationship unto Himself that He calls them My people. Often they are disconsolate: because of their natural corruption's, the temptations of Satan, the cruel treatment of the world, the low state of Christ's cause upon earth. The God of all comfort (2 Cor. 1:3) is very tender of them, and it is His revealed will that His servants should bind up the brokenhearted and pour the balm of Gilead into their wounds. What cause have we to exclaim Who is a God like unto Thee! (Micah 7:18), who has provided for the comfort of those who were rebels against His government and transgressors of His Law. The contents of this little volume have appeared from time to time in our monthly magazine during the last thirty years. They were, previously, sermons which we preached long ago in the U.S.A. and Australia. Here and there is an expression (especially where Prophecy is touched upon) that we would not use today; but since the Lord was pleased to bless them in their original form to not a few of His distressed people, we have not revised them. May it please Him to speak peace by them to afflicted souls today, and the glory shall be His alone. Pink (1890-1953) was a Baptist Preacher in England, Australia, and the United States. He is most famous for his book The Sovereignty of God. After its advent, he, assisted by his editor Mr. I. Herendeen, launched his yearly publication, Studies in the Scriptures in 1921. These continued until his death, totaling altogether 33 volumes of 288 pp. each. Most of Pink's books are taken from these yearly volumes (written monthly in 24 page format).

Comfort for Troubled Christians J. C. Brumfield,2003-07-01 In the midst of a trial, it is often difficult to see any purpose to our suffering. Comfort for Troubled Christians will help people understand that God never leaves us nor forsakes us, especially in the dark times. The comforting scriptural encouragement in this book explains God's part and purpose in testing and offers a pattern for success to all Christians who are passing through fire. This book has already sold two million copies as a booklet and is now available in a more attractive, easier-to-read format.

Encourage and Comfort Sauni Rinehart, 2020-10-15 When you're suffering, when the storm is raging, when the pain just won't go away, you need comfort. You need encouragement. You need to know Someone is listening. And when those you love are hurting or struggling, you want to offer comfort and encouragement to them. If you're trying to find comfort and encouragement, you can find them in the Bible, God's word to us. These 30 days of devotions from the Thirty Days With God series focus on encouragement and comfort in and through a relationship with Jesus. Each devotion focuses on a verse or two about comfort or encouragement, and each gives an opportunity to talk with God and share what He reveals to you. Take some time to learn what God says about comfort and encouragement. He'll fill your heart and soul with the comfort and encouragement described in His Word.

Comfort for Christians James Smith, 2014-11-01 And so we know and rely on the love God has for us. God is love. 1 John 4:16 The sweeter the truth -- the more backward we often are to receive and believe it. Therefore it must be presented to us again and again. What is more pleasant than the fact that God is love! Yet so quickly we doubt it, or forget it, or fail to realize it. Therefore the Gospel presents it to us again and again, and in almost every possible form. Twice within the scope of a few verses, John tells us that God is love! 1 John 4:8, 16. Belief in this portrayal of God lies at the root of our holiness, happiness, and peace. To the extent that we believe that God is love -- we will . . . consecrate ourselves to His service, enjoy peace in our consciences, and be happy in His ways. God loves us, and therefore He planned our salvation, sending His one and only Son to take away our sins by the sacrifice of Himself. He also sent His Holy Spirit to teach us our need of Christ and lead us to Him. And, finally, He has put His blessed Word in our hands so that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures, might have hope. God loves us -- and therefore He . . . chastens us, strips us, and empties us! He will not let us live satisfied without Himself. My eyes are always on the Lord! Psalm 25:15 CONTENTS: The Love God Has for Us! Jesus is Always Present Afflictions are Appointed Suffering is Mitigated Affliction is Beneficial Jesus Bearing Our Sins Return! Return! Mercy Is Certain Chastisement -- a Fruit of Love Brethren of Christ The Common Lot Give up the Burden Rest in Jesus Always Trust The Right View The Lord Will Provide Strength as the Day Trials and Sorrows Be Still Sufficient Grace Prayer Heard and Answered The Cleansing Blood The Blessed Man All for the Best Comfort for the WIDOW Comfort for the POOR Comfort for the AGED Mourning Ended No More Pain! A Closing Question

Suffering Christian Mike Vaughn, 2021-02-17 The believer in Christ is not alone in their suffering. Mike Vaughn handles our most common hurts, fears, and doubts from a very personal perspective. In an introspective, piercingly direct style, Mike honestly scrutinizes his own non-belief, discontent, anxiety, anger, self-hatred, despair, and doubt. And through the process, he reveals how the believer can find comfort and hope even during the most painful and protracted trials. Each chapter's theme addresses the most pressing questions such as: Why do people suffer? Why does God allow pain if He is loving? Why does God permit evil if He is good? Where is God during affliction? Why doesn't God immediately answer our prayers? How can a believer find comfort while suffering? Why don't all Christians suffer the same trials? Do hardships prove God has forsaken us? Why are Christians persecuted so violently? Why do the ungodly triumph against God's people many times? What is the faithful response when suffering? Is there any hope when life seems to get even worse?
