Cicero A LEGAMUS Transitional Reader Judith Lynn Sebesta, Mark Haynes, 2010-01-01 The Legamus Transitional Readers are innovative texts that form a bridge between the initial study of Latin via basal textbooks and the reading of authentic author texts. This series of texts has been developed by a special committee of high school and college teachers to facilitate this challenging transition. Cicero: A Legamus Transitional Reader introduces students to Cicero's Latin via selections from his Pro Archia. Introductory materials include an overview of the life and works of Cicero, historical context, and bibliography. The authors combine special visual features—including line alignments based on meaning with the pass through method—to make Cicero's sometimes complicated prose more student-friendly. Appendices on grammar and figures of speech as well as a pull-out vocabulary complete the book's student aids. After finishing Cicero: A Legamus Transitional Reader, students will be prepared to undertake a more complete study of Cicero in an upper level Latin literature or college level course. Features: pre-reading materials to help students understand underlying cultural, historical, and literary concepts review explanations of grammatical and syntactical usage, with practice exercises pass through approach that begins with the main statement and adds clauses with each pass thus assisting students in unraveling Cicero's complex sentences first versions of the Latin text with transitional aids: lines aligned to facilitate comprehension, implied words in parentheses, difficult noun-adjective pairings in different fonts complete vocabulary and grammatical notes on facing pages post-reading materials that encourage appreciation of Cicero's style, reflection on what has been read, and making connections to the modern world final version of each Latin text without transitional aids, but with notes and vocabulary pull-out vocabulary of frequently used Latin words four maps and eighteen illustrations that complement the Latin selections and background essays

Latin for the New Millennium: Level 2: student text Milena Minkova, Terence Tunberg, 2009-10-15 Latin for the New Millennium, Levels 1 and 2 is a complete introductory course to the Latin language, suitable for both high school and college students, consisting of two volumes, each accompanied by a teacher's manual and students' workbooks. The strategy employed for teaching and learning incorporates the best of both the reading approach and the more abstract grammatical method. The choice of vocabulary in each chapter reflects ancient authors commonly studied for the AP Latin examinations. There are exercises designed for oral use, as well as a substantial core of more conventional exercises in each chapter. The readings, pictures, and supplementary inserts on cultural information illuminate Roman life, civilization, Roman history, and mythology, as well as the continuing use of Latin after antiquity and its vigorous literary tradition in such periods as the Middle Ages and Renaissance. Each chapter also includes derivatives, the influence of Latin vocabulary on English, and selected proverbs or common Latin sayings. Latin for the New Millennium Level 3 builds on the strong foundation of Levels 1 and 2 and provides students an in-depth experience of Caesar, Catullus, Cicero, Horace, Ovid, and Vergil as well as of the Renaissance writer Erasmus. This text provides students an introduction to unadapted Latin literature and builds their literary analysis skills.--adapted from publisher website.
