Cornerstone's Electoral Legislation 2016 Philip Coppel KC,2016-06-11 Cornerstone's Electoral Legislation covers the five principal kinds of UK elections: Parliamentary; European; Local Government; Parish; and Referendums. The legislation governing the conduct of elections is necessarily technical and highly prescriptive with electoral officers expected to absolutely adhere to the rules. As legislation is amended every year this title enables electoral officers ready access to up-to-date legislation. This is a new title in the 'Cornerstone' series which is published with the highly respected chambers.

A Newscast for the Masses Tim Kiska,2009 As the chief source of information for many people and a key revenue stream for the country's broadcast conglomerates, local television news has grown from a curiosity into a powerful journalistic and cultural force. In A Newscast for the Masses, Tim Kiska examines the evolution of television news in Detroit, from its beginnings in the late 1940s, when television was considered a wild young medium, to the early 1980s, when cable television permanently altered the broadcast landscape. Kiska shows how the local news, which was initially considered a poor substitute for respectable print journalism, became the cornerstone of television programming and the public's preferred news source. Kiska begins his study in 1947 with the first Detroit television broadcast, made by WWJ-TV. Owned by the Evening News Association, the same company that owned the Detroit News, WWJ developed a credible broadcast news operation as a cross-promotional vehicle for the newspaper. Yet by the late 1960s WWJ was unseated by newcomers WXYZ-TV and WJBK-TV, whose superior coverage of the 1967 Detroit riots lured viewers away from WWJ. WXYZ-TV would eventually become the most powerful news outlet in Detroit with the help of its cash-rich parent company, the American Broadcasting Corporation, and its use of sophisticated survey research and advertising techniques to grow its news audience. Though critics tend to deride the sensationalism and showmanship of local television news, Kiska demonstrates that over the last several decades newscasts have effectively tailored their content to the demands of the viewing public and, as a result, have become the most trusted source of information for the average American and the most lucrative source of profit for television networks. A Newscast for the Masses is based on extensive interviews with journalists who participated in the development of television in Detroit and careful research into the files of the McHugh & Hoffman consulting firm, which used social science techniques to discern the television viewing preferences of metro Detroiters. Anyone interested in television history or journalism will appreciate this detailed and informative study.

Censorial Sensitivities András Sajó,2007 This book addresses the conflict between free speech and religion. Religious authorities have long tried to discipline free speech when it runs counter to religious teachings or dogmas. The reaction to the cartoons about the prophet Muhammad, published in the Danish Jyllands-Posten, demonstrated the resonance of the accusation of blasphemy inside Islam. The conflict is not, however, limited to Islam. The Catholic Church and various Protestant churches have strongly expressed their hostility toward various books, plays, and films that they consider collective defamation. There is an increasing concern about the need to protect religious sensitivities against offensive speech, in particular where such speech affects vulnerable minorities and collective identities based on religious affiliation. The thought-provoking essays in this book are a welcome contribution to the current debate on how to deal with the clash between free speech and religion in a world where a growing number of people are committed in a fundamental way to religion in everyday life.

Air Wars Jerold M. Starr,2001 Offering a narrative of the price of politics, money, and ambition, and an account of how ordinary people can prevail over powerful interests, this title tells how a grassroots movement of concerned citizens at WQED in Pittsburgh was able to overcome enormous institutional influence in their quest for public accountability.

Evangelical and African Pentecostal Unity Hugh Osgood,2024-04-18 As the millennium approached, the number of independent African Pentecostal churches in Britain increased rapidly. Having assimilated classical Pentecostalism and the charismatic movement, and having begun to find ways of working with the Caribbean Pentecostal denominations, it remained to be seen how UK evangelicalism would fare with African Pentecostals. This book looks at the intricacies of the relationship at a time that provided ample opportunities to weigh the benefits and challenges of integration from every possible angle.

The Turnaround and Transformation of Grand Rapids Baptist College Into Cornerstone College Gary L. Hauck,1998

Organizational Transformation in Higher Education Gary Hauck,2002-05 Between the years 1981-1996, many American colleges experienced a period of decline due to the numbers of available students, economic trends, and national interests. Some of these schools were able to experience significant positive turnaround. At the same time, many institutions of religious higher education continued to decline, some to the point of closure. One Midwestern Christian college experienced a major turnaround. Evidence indicates in addition to turnaround, the school also went through a significant transformation process. This study investigated both the turnaround and transformation of the school as an integrated process. As such, it also serves as an example of an ethnographic case study in higher education.

Power to Heal Joan Hunter,2009-06-08 “We received more miracle reports when Joan Hunter was a guest on It’s Supernatural! than from any other interview.” —Sid Roth, Host, It’s Supernatural! TV

Miracle Maintenance Joan Hunter,2013-09-02 Hold On to Your Blessing!With every gift you “receive” from God, there is the responsibility to “maintain” it, or else you risk losing the blessing of that gift. While many Christians understand this concept as it relates to the area of physical healing, it applies to so many other areas of our lives, as well. Gifts may come in the form of respect, honor, favor, and opportunities, as well as compassion, love, forgiveness, recognition, and instruction. And what we do with the gifts we receive from God can affect the trajectory of our lives. Author and teacher Joan Hunter will lead you on a journey of revelation as you... Learn the difference between taking and receiving Build your confidence in God’s miraculous provision Understand how to position yourself to receive God’s gifts Become aware of hindrances to receiving Discover the secrets to keeping the blessings you receive Learning to maintain the miracles you receive will affect every area of your life. You will change the way you think, you will see with renewed vision, and you will live with the heartbeat of God.

The Religious Broadcasting Freedom Act and the Non Commercial Broadcasting Freedom of Expression Act of 2000 E. J. Tauzin,2000-09-01 FCC sought to quantify the service obligations of noncommercial TV licenses by requiring that More than half of the hours of programming must serve an educational. or cultural purpose, and programming which teaches about religion would count towards the new benchmark, but programs devoted to relig. exhortation, proselytizing, or statements of personally held religious beliefs would not qualify. These distinctions did not consider such implications on the 1st Amend. and the Religious Freedom Act. Witnesses: Mark Dreistadt, Cornerstone TV; Don Wildmon, Amer. Family Assoc.; Harold Furchtgott-Roth, FCC; E. Brandt Gustavson, Nat. Religious Broadcasters; and Gloria Tristani, FCC.

CORNERSTONES Tom Gaskins Jr.,2021-05-07 One person said, I have read many a book in my life, but never one like this! Tom moves from some of the simplest of entities in our life to some of the most complex issues of today. It's some of those simple things that hold great value for us. He admonishes, Follow truth, not people. He tackles such a wide variety of topics that you never know what's coming next. You may view your IQ differently than ever before! He tackles abortion, not in debate but with one simple question! He touches on alcohol, drugs, and tobacco, not in a condemning way but with thoughts he hopes will stick in your mind. This book does not come across as a preach-at-you book, rather, a passing on of thoughts to encourage you. Don't let anyone think for you! It's your life. You're the one who has to live it and leave it! Shootings, voting, fairness- he takes them on. Oh yes, he tackles faith. He suggests you must have a TBS to have a Bible faith. A what? A TBS? You'll see! It's a thought provoker, highly entertaining, out of the box. Surprisingly, he somewhat minimizes politics. Tom maintains it is E-C-O-N-O-M-I-C-S that we need to understand. Like what works and what doesn't work. He addresses what he calls the what's one vote disease. He calls evolution a hoax and backs it up. He says we need to pull out the Golden Rule, dust it off, and hang it back up. The most stirring section may be Finding God within Your Skin. You will never look at yourself in the mirror the same ever again! He takes you into areas of thought where you've probably never been before, like down into the inner chambers of your heart...where no one goes...but you and God.
