The work supervised by the Sheriff in San Fran cisco includes the transportation of insane persons and persons convicted of crimes to the various insane asylums and prisons. The State allows the Sheriff a per diem fee of in the case of a female patient and in case of a male pa tient for all commitments, together with the cost of transportation, meals and other expenses of deputies and patients while in transit. At the Central Emergency Hospital the Board of Health has established a detention ward, where persons charged with insanity are examined by an insanity commission and thereafter a judge of the Superior Court presides over the trial of the person so charged, where witnesses are heard and the judge determines as to the sanity or insanity of the individual, and, if in his judgment the per son is insane, he signs a commitment to one of the State institutions and the Sheriff arranges for the transportation to said institution. The law provides that in the event of a female commitment a matron must accompany the patient, In these cases the patient may demand a jury trial. The custody, care and maintenance of the pris oners in the county jails are under the Sheriff's jurisdiction.
