Art from a Fractured Past Cynthia E. Milton, 2014-01-27 Peru's Truth and Reconciliation Commission not only documented the political violence of the 1980s and 1990s but also gave Peruvians a unique opportunity to examine the causes and nature of that violence. In Art from a Fractured Past, scholars and artists expand on the commission's work, arguing for broadening the definition of the testimonial to include various forms of artistic production as documentary evidence. Their innovative focus on representation offers new and compelling perspectives on how Peruvians experienced those years and how they have attempted to come to terms with the memories and legacies of violence. Their findings about Peru offer insight into questions of art, memory, and truth that resonate throughout Latin America in the wake of dirty wars of the last half century. Exploring diverse works of art, including memorials, drawings, theater, film, songs, painted wooden retablos (three-dimensional boxes), and fiction, including an acclaimed graphic novel, the contributors show that art, not constrained by literal truth, can generate new opportunities for empathetic understanding and solidarity. Contributors. Ricardo Caro Cárdenas, Jesús Cossio, Ponciano del Pino, Cynthia M. Garza, Edilberto Jiménez Quispe, Cynthia E. Milton, Jonathan Ritter, Luis Rossell, Steve J. Stern, María Eugenia Ulfe, Víctor Vich, Alfredo Villar

Acta Medicinæ Legalis. Volume XLIV. 1994 Patrice Mangin, Bertrand Ludes, 1995-04-21 Professor Patrice MANGIN President of the XVIth Congress of the International Academy of Legal Medicine and Social Medicine The International Academy of Legal Medicine and Social Medicine was founded in 1938 in Bonn. The motive for founding the Academy was to promote associating and confronting on an international background the scientific research work produced in the various domains dealing with the Legal and Social Medicine. As first president of the International Academy of Legal Medicine and Social Medicine, Professor Knud Sand from Copenhagen, assisted by colleagues of the Praesidium appointed as national representatives, succeeded in gathering together nearly the whole academic people involved in Legal and Social Medicine. Thus one year later, in 1939, The Academy became a worldwide institution of 450 members from thirty nations. After the war, what had been before of considerable interest for the progress of the knowledge and techniques in Legal Medicine remained again a pressing necessity leading to the second meeting of the Academy in 1947 in Brussels under the presidency of Professor De Laet. Since then the meetings of the Academy followed one another every three years. At this point, I would like to thank all the past presidents of the Academy and in particular Professor Roche and Professor Andre for their contribution without which the Academy would not be what it is presently.

Escaping the Chrysalis Jan Deelstra, 2016-08-17 A butterfly must struggle to break free of the chrysalis that once supported her so tightly. That process of gaining freedom forces fluids into her wings which then gives her the strength to fly free. Without the struggle, she would never get off the ground. So too, do humans gain strength from the struggles we come face-to-face with. Rather than stuffing down the emotions of past events, author Jan Deelstra encourages us to acknowledge and embrace the lessons and strengths that are as a direct result of the experiences and barriers we have faced. Breaking free of the psychological shackles that have stopped us from consciously creating a purpose driven life makes us stronger and more empowered, personally. Regardless of how painful, our challenges are rich additions to our life experiences, and each struggle ultimately shines clarity on our unique purpose. Escaping the Chrysalis provides readers with the tools and techniques to transform personal struggles into strengths, and pain into passion for reaching undreamed of possibilities. This is the book we all wish our parents had read! It is the life-manual that provides easy to understand and implement exercises that shortcut the process of building a more secure self-esteem. Self-esteem affects every facet of life from relationships to wealth potential, and Escaping the Chrysalis has a primary purpose of showing readers how to easily improve self-esteem and feelings of worth and deserving. From enhanced relationships, to interpreting your dreams for the messages they contain, to communicating desires more effectively, to attaining the optimal body shape, the once proprietary, self-help tools and techniques included in Escaping the Chrysalis can help to empower anyone to live a passionately fueled successful life. An award winning inspirational book, Escaping the Chrysalis is sure to be among the most dog-eared self-help books on your shelves.

Shikimori's Not Just a Cutie 5 Keigo Maki, 2021-07-06 Shikimori seems like the perfect girlfriend: cute, fun to be around, sweet when she wants to be... but she has a cool dark side that comes out under the right circumstances. And her boyfriend Izumi loves to be around when that happens! A fun and funny high school romance with a sassy twist perfect for fans of Nagatoro-san and Komi Can't Communicate! Shikimori spends some quality time with her rival (?) Kamiya and finds that they have a lot more in common than just their attraction to Izumi. Could this be the start of a special friendship? With the culture fair now over, the time has come for the dreaded (to some) sports fair, and the whole gang has been assigned to the relay race team! Hachimitsu, whose interest in sports and all physical activities is nonexistent, faces a difficult dilemma. Her friends are passionate about competing to win, while she is passionate about not exerting herself in any way. Will the power of friendship overcome her deep distaste for running or, heaven forbid, practicing running?!

Princess Florizella Philippa Gregory, 1989 Princess Florizella is an extremely unusual princess! She wears patched jeans, and she climbs trees. She rides her horse Jellybean, and she goes on picnics. She doesn't care how she looks and worst of all for her parents who wanted an ordinary fairy-tale princess, she won't be rescued by anybody, and she won't get married.--Page [i].
