Cal's Mission Richard M Beloin MD,2019-04-15 This story covers Cal's early years as a bounty hunter in 1880, followed by a period as a special Deputy US Marshal. During these times, he starts his victims fund to support the victims of violent crimes. While on assignment to protect a victimized widow, he falls in love and marries. Over the next year, they develop three business ventures—a sheep farm, a commercial crop enterprise, and a private security agency. Throughout these times, the story provides action, cowboy shooting, romance, and business specifics. The book will appeal to all genders, ages, and especially to enthusiasts who like the late years in the Old West, before the 1900s.
