Feline Philosophy John Gray,2020-11-24 The author of Straw Dogs, famous for his provocative critiques of scientific hubris and the delusions of progress and humanism, turns his attention to cats—and what they reveal about humans' torturous relationship to the world and to themselves. The history of philosophy has been a predictably tragic or comical succession of palliatives for human disquiet. Thinkers from Spinoza to Berdyaev have pursued the perennial questions of how to be happy, how to be good, how to be loved, and how to live in a world of change and loss. But perhaps we can learn more from cats--the animal that has most captured our imagination--than from the great thinkers of the world. In Feline Philosophy, the philosopher John Gray discovers in cats a way of living that is unburdened by anxiety and self-consciousness, showing how they embody answers to the big questions of love and attachment, mortality, morality, and the Self: Montaigne's house cat, whose un-examined life may have been the one worth living; Meo, the Vietnam War survivor with an unshakable capacity for fearless joy; and Colette's Saha, the feline heroine of her subversive short story The Cat, a parable about the pitfalls of human jealousy. Exploring the nature of cats, and what we can learn from it, Gray offers a profound, thought-provoking meditation on the follies of human exceptionalism and our fundamentally vulnerable and lonely condition. He charts a path toward a life without illusions and delusions, revealing how we can endure both crisis and transformation, and adapt to a changed scene, as cats have always done.

Big Cat, Little Cat Elisha Cooper,2017-03-14 A 2018 Caldecott Honor book There was a cat who lived alone. Until the day a new cat came . . . And so a story of friendship begins, following the two cats through their days, months, and years until one day, the older cat has to go. And he doesn't come back. This is a poignant story, told in measured text and bold black-and-white illustrations about the act of moving on.

Cute Cats Sukan Sethi,2015-09-06 It is said that 'A Picture is Worth a Thousand Words'. But if a picture puts a smile on your face, soothes your soul, calms your mind, or brings immense Happiness to you, then, that picture is 'Priceless!' Presented here is a collection of Cute Cate pictures, taken over the years, that have always made people, especially Cat Lovers, happy upon seeing them. Every picture is a meditation and can reveal a story in itself. I have arranged them in a book that you can keep at home or carry around, and peruse whenever you need to brighten your day. Cats are Unique! No animal has the theoretical bragging rights of 'Nine Lives' like Cats!! What is the Major difference between Cats and Dogs? If you pet a Dog, it thinks that you are their God. If you pet a Cat, they think that they are God!! It was not easy to take these pictures! Cats still behave like tigers, despite being domesticated. However, these photos show that they are now comfortable among humans. Enjoy these pictures and revel in their Cuteness and Glory!
