The Science of Happily Ever After Ty Tashiro, 2014-01-28 There may be no formula for love, but that certainly doesn't mean there's no science behind it. In this fascinating analysis about the studies and research data behind romance and relationships, Dr. Ty Tashiro sets out to revolutionize the ways we search for love. His research pinpoints why our decision-making abilities seem to fail when it comes to choosing mates and how we can make smarter choices. Dr. Tashiro has discovered that if you want a lifetime of happiness—not just togetherness—it all comes down to how you choose a partner in the first place. With wit and insight, he explains the science behind finding a soul mate and distills his research into actionable tips, including: Why you get only three wishes when choosing your ideal partner Why most people squander their wishes and end up in unfulfilling relationships How wishing for the three traits that really matter can help you find enduring love Illustrated using entertaining stories based on real-life situations and backed by scientific findings from fields such as demography, sociology, medical science and psychology, Dr. Tashiro's book provides an accessible road map to help people everywhere find their happily-ever-afters.

A Million First Dates Dan Slater, 2014-01-28  Previously published in hardcover as Love in the Time of Algorithms  Once considered the realm of the lonely and desperate, sites like eHarmony, Match, OkCupid, and Plenty of Fish have been embraced by pretty much every demographic. Dating has been transformed from a daunting transaction based on scarcity to one in which the possibilities are almost endless. Now anyone can search for exactly what they want, connect with more people, and get more information about those people than ever before. As journalist Dan Slater shows, online dating is changing society in more profound ways than we imagine. He explores how these new technologies, by altering our perception of what's possible, are reconditioning our feelings about commitment and challenging the traditional paradigm of adult life. Slater takes readers behind the scenes of a fascinating business. Dating sites capitalize on our quest for love, but how do their creators' ideas about profits, morality, and the nature of desire shape the virtual worlds they've created for us?

Dating Diva Adventures Lori Lemon-Geshay, 2011-05 Dating Diva Adventures begins with three BFFs in tow, and they created an online dating profile for Lori with a well-known social networking site. After over 3,286 hits in thirty days, Lori set out on a journey of self-discovery in hopes to learn about human behavior, her needs, her desires, and basic human interaction while on the quest for true love. During this process of first dates, she met some incredible individuals and learned about common dating faux pas and areas of opportunity that we all have. The book, Dating Diva Adventures is meant to be lighthearted, fun, and introspective. It is not about the hunt for a man, nor is it about marriage or finding a rich sugar daddy. Lori says, she'll leave that to the experts! She's a woman of substance, has her own financial means, and she doesn't need a man for that, nor do you! To learn more about the author visit, www.lorilemongeshay.com

The Man's Dating Decision Notebook Logan Tindell, 2020-07-08 This streamlined, easy-to-use, and thoughtful notebook is for men who are on the dating quest. Whether or not you are looking for a female companion offline or online, it's essential that you know what you want, what you need, and how to objectively assess your dates and girlfriend experiences. Your time, energy, purpose, and legacy are too important to be wasted in pursuit of a unicorn. It's time to wake-up and take ownership of your decisions. Ask yourself the important questions and never fool yourself. This notebook offers many essential questions for each entry (this notebook allows for fifty entries - each entry consisting of a front and back page). Each entry also contains areas where you can describe and note important determinants. As a man, your time and energy are precious. Hopefully, this efficient notebook will help you start objectively observing the relationships you're pursuing or keeping. The goal is inner peace, continued confidence, awareness, and the preservation of your sense of freedom. This notebook makes for a great gift for younger men who are new to dating or men who are interested in getting out there and exploring opportunities. If interested in mindfulness for inner strength and balance, feel free to give our mindfulness guides a try. They can be found at 30DaysNow.com or by searching for Corin Devaso and Harper Daniels on Amazon.

Quest for Love Elisabeth Elliot, 2021-03-16 I have deep feelings for this guy, but he says I'm like a sister to him. What should I do? Why should a man still be expected to initiate romance? Isn't it okay to spend time together if we're just friends? If I never marry, will God take that desire away? These are some of the many questions posed in letters to Elisabeth Elliot by readers of her bestselling book Passion and Purity. In this beautifully repackaged edition of Quest for Love, she responds with sound, biblical guidance, dusting off antiquated concepts such as commitment, integrity, honor, and servanthood, and showing how they still apply to dating and singleness today. Intertwined are hopeful true stories of discovering love through God's direction.

Date Expectations Kelly Seal, 2014-04-08 Kelly is the first person I go to for advice. - Natasha Solomons, New York Times best-selling author Both practical and optimistic, Date Expectations empowers readers with strategies to uncover the unconscious patterns that can sabotage even the most sincere effort to find love. -Julie Livingston, editor, Men, Women and Relationships Dating can sometimes feel like you're riding a roller coaster. It's fast, it's nerve-wracking and at some point you just want to get off! Sound familiar? For so many women, dating has become more like a race than a pursuit of love. You don't want just any man - you want to find Mr. Right. But you have to sort through all the bad ones to get to him! It can feel exhausting. You swipe through countless pictures on dating apps, search through online profiles, connect with Facebook friends-of-friends-of-friends, Twitter followers, or even try a head-spinning four-minute speed date. If a man doesn't seem good-looking enough, or tall enough, or funny enough from a first impression, it's on to the next! While riding this kind of dating roller coaster may seem to be the best and fastest way to meet the right person, it doesn't work. There is, however, a better way. In Kelly Seal's new book Date Expectations: A Guide

To Changing Your Dating Life And Finding Real Love, she examines how such anxious searching actually works against you. She explains several techniques to help you slow down your search and see how your subconscious habits create barriers to finding the right man, and having a shot at real love. You'll learn the keys to more effective communication, which is at the very heart of meeting new people and relationship building. Date Expectations shows how you can shift your perspective in order to make finding that special someone not only more enjoyable, but significantly more possible.

Boundaries in Dating Henry Cloud, John Townsend, 2000 Respected counselors, popular radio hosts, and bestselling authors Cloud and Townsend now apply the principles described in their bestselling Boundaries to matters of love and romance.

How to Make the Biggest Decision of Your Life George Blair-West, Jiveny Blair-West, 2021-01-27

Reality Dating 101 Kenneth Schneider, 2008-03 Reality Dating 101 is a sharp, sometimes cynical, and often humorous description of the ins and outs of dating as experienced by one single man and then responded to by a single woman. Bachelor Kenneth Schneider provides an eye-opening look into the realities of dating that is based on his own experiences as well as the experiences of others.

Equally geared toward both men and women, he openly explores many of the topics and answers the questions many single people have but are afraid to ask. Why did your blind date leave the coffee shop less than an hour after you met? What are the real reasons why your date never called again? Why is your ex back in your life? Beth provides a woman's perspective by responding to all the topics, including ones such as: Looking in the Mirror, Playing Games, Excuses, Looks or Intelligence, and It's Over When It's Over. Geared for people who love to laugh, the dating dilemmas covered in this guidebook are meant to encourage lively discussions around the water cooler or in the coffee shop about the never-ending quest for finding Mr. or Ms. Right.

Dating Amy Amy DeZellar, 2008-06-11 Dating today can seem like Alice's tumble down the rabbit hole into Wonderland. Whether starting out or starting again, women face the difficult task of sorting through the good (guy), the bad (boy) and the ugly (morning after) in their search for Mr. Right. Here, giving hope to smart single women everywhere is Amy DeZellar, who bravely dedicated two years of her life to debunking common dating myths and documenting 50 of her dates. She's gone wine-tasting with Indentured Cats, a blind date who also happened to be blind; been accosted in a cornfield by Glitter Ball, a lounge musician who grew up with the Beatles; and found her artistic sentiments at odds with her desire for financial security when she simultaneously got involved with a painter named Harry Potter and a NASA super-computer designer named Teflon, all in her quest to chronicle the dating life of a regular girl and maybe even find true love. Each of the 50 chapters is dedicated to a different date, and includes the kinds of tips and sharp observations that only someone on the front lines can offer. Get ready to laugh, cry, and commiserate with Amy--and learn, as she did, a few things about finding the perfect man.

Why do so many men overwhelm, shackle, depress, and stress themselves out over the dating experience? Does it have to suck? The answer is...no. The world of dating has changed, but not all is lost. This is an era of self-discovery. You have to know what it is you truly want and need before committing your time to a person. As a man, your time and energy are incredibly valuable. Don't waste them! Whether you just started dating someone, are looking for a female companion, or simply don't know what it is that you want, then start with utilizing this streamlined notebook for your benefit. The man who puts in the effort to objectively observe and assess his short-term and long-term relationships has more control and power to make smart decisions for his future. Don't concern yourself with petty thoughts such as: Does she find me attractive? Can I please her? Am I the guy she desires? Will she be loyal to me in the long-term? Does she respect me? Will I make her happy? These questions are not helpful to the ultimate goal, which is ensuring you preserve, honor, and strengthen your freedom, inner peace, and energy. Don't lose your legacy by chasing a unicorn. Get smart! Start thinking about your dating experiences differently. Think like an objective observer, as if you were mentoring a friend. Hopefully, this streamlined notebook will help you do just that. This easy-to-use and efficient notebook will help guide you to make a decision that preserves your legacy as a hard-working, intelligent, and determined man. Each date (girlfriend) entry consists of a front and back page that consists of a series of essential questions and a few areas for you to describe, note, and keep track of important determinants. P.S. If you feel comfortable enough to share a dating experience, feel free to do so in the comments section online via any of the sites that sell this notebook. GuruNotebooks.com

Love Begins At 40 Cherry Gilchrist, Lara Owen, 2008-06-16 The best relationships often come after forty, when experience has taught us what kind of person suits us best, and we can love more wisely and kindly than we did at an earlier age. But when you are single in your 40s, 50s or 60s, how do you go about meeting a new partner? This book gives you the information and support you need to get out there and search actively for love. Interviews with couples and the authors' own experience show that it can be done, and their friendly guidance will encourage you on your way. Love Begins at 40 will show you how to: Prepare yourself, practically and emotionally, for dating again Plan a strategy that will sustain you until you meet the right partner Use internet dating dating, personal ads and introduction agencies Handle the feelings – both joyful and challenging – generated by a new relationship.

'Til I Find You Greta Bondieumaitre,2013-09 No one knows how bumpy the road to love is more than Tisha Cole. After years of excruciatingly embarrassing dates, the 25-year-old receptionist is ready to hand in her dating license. But her cynical cousin, Drew will not let her. She knows that finding Mr. Right has always been Tisha's ultimate goal in life and short of joining the search herself, Drew plans on doing whatever it is in her power to help Tisha find him. When they cross paths with two best friends and a very sexy entrepreneur, there's a slight change in plans. With not one but two perfect dates, how will Tisha choose? Where next will her quest for love take her when she decides to upgrade her relationship- with both men! Two not-so-sweet cousins, three not-so-honest men. With the many potholes and crossroads along the way, will Tisha ever reach her destination?

How to Not Die Alone Logan Ury, 2021-02-02 A “must-read” (The Washington Post) funny and practical guide to help you find, build, and keep the relationship of your dreams. Have you ever looked around and wondered, “Why has everyone found love except me?” You’re not the only one. Great relationships don’t just appear in our lives—they’re the culmination of a series of decisions, including whom to date, how to end it with the wrong person, and when to commit to the right one. But our brains often get in the way. We make poor decisions, which thwart us on our quest to find lasting love.

Drawing from years of research, behavioral scientist turned dating coach Logan Ury reveals the hidden forces that cause those mistakes. But awareness on its own doesn't lead to results. You have to actually change your behavior. Ury shows you how. This "simple-to-use guide" (Lori Gottlieb, New York Times bestselling author of Maybe You Should Talk to Someone) focuses on a different decision in each chapter, incorporating insights from behavioral science, original research, and real-life stories. You'll learn: -What's holding you back in dating (and how to break the pattern) -What really matters in a long-term partner (and what really doesn't) -How to overcome the perils of online dating (and make the apps work for you) -How to meet more people in real life (while doing activities you love) -How to make dates fun again (so they stop feeling like job interviews) -Why "the spark" is a myth (but you'll find love anyway) This "data-driven" (Time), step-by-step guide to relationships, complete with hands-on exercises, is designed to transform your life. How to Not Die Alone will help you find, build, and keep the relationship of your dreams.
