Dating Tips for the Unemployed Iris Smyles, 2016-06-28 One of the Believer's Best Books of the Year: One woman's journey through that awkward period between being born and dying. A modern odyssey about trying to find one's home in the world, this collection of wickedly funny and offbeat vignettes touches upon quantum physics; the Donner Party; arctic exploration; Greek mythology; Rocky I, II, V, IV, VI, and III respectively; and literary immortality. Dating Tips for the Unemployed "melds novel, autobiography, and all manner of asides as [the author] flails at art, love, and friendship with the wry intelligence of someone just wise enough to realize they have no idea what they're doing. A flat-out joy to read" (O, The Oprah Magazine). "In engaging episodes, Iris-the-character neurotically navigates dating in New York City, smokes pot on Greek islands with hapless lovers, drinks too much, deals with disapproving family, and eats a lot of cannoli. Smyles's surreal, lyrical voice elevates these everyday scenarios into the realm of the fantastic and absurd. Included in the book are hilariously stylized advertisements full of false promises, such as 'Health Secrets of the Roman Empire' and 'Have Your Portrait Painted By An Elephant!' all for a price. Smyles is sharp, melancholy, and wickedly funny. She is unafraid to reveal and revel in her character's flaws because it is what makes them so achingly, relatably human." —Interview "Something like a cocktail of Dorothy Parker, James Joyce, and Philip Roth iced, sweetened, and blended." —The Nervous Breakdown "Whimsy, satire, and rollicking social commentary . . . Ms. Smyles is a misanthrope-of-the-people, a standout on the order of Fran Lebowitz." —The East Hampton Star

How to Not Die Alone Logan Ury, 2021-02-02 A “must-read” (The Washington Post) funny and practical guide to help you find, build, and keep the relationship of your dreams. Have you ever looked around and wondered, “Why has everyone found love except me?” You’re not the only one. Great relationships don’t just appear in our lives—they’re the culmination of a series of decisions, including whom to date, how to end it with the wrong person, and when to commit to the right one. But our brains often get in the way. We make poor decisions, which thwart us on our quest to find lasting love. Drawing from years of research, behavioral scientist turned dating coach Logan Ury reveals the hidden forces that cause those mistakes. But awareness on its own doesn’t lead to results. You have to actually change your behavior. Ury shows you how. This “simple-to-use guide” (Lori Gottlieb, New York Times bestselling author of Maybe You Should Talk to Someone) focuses on a different decision in each chapter, incorporating insights from behavioral science, original research, and real-life stories. You’ll learn: -What’s holding you back in dating (and how to break the pattern) -What really matters in a long-term partner (and what really doesn’t) -How to overcome the perils of online dating (and make the apps work for you) -How to meet more people in real life (while doing activities you love) -How to make dates fun again (so they stop feeling like job interviews) -Why “the spark” is a myth (but you’ll find love anyway) This “data-driven” (Time), step-by-step guide to relationships, complete with hands-on exercises, is designed to transform your life. How to Not Die Alone will help you find, build, and keep the relationship of your dreams.

Dating Advice for Women from Men: Tips and Stories from the Inside Lance Steele, 2013-05-26 Dating Advice for Women from Men was written for women by a man. It might sound a bit ironic but it is filled with great tips that ladies venturing into the world of dating can use. Based on what the author advises, the best dating tips for women comes from the male perspective. Author, Lance Steele believes that women who have a difficult time dating do not take the time to look at things from a male's point-of-view. What a male looks for in a woman and not the opposite way around is the key for a woman to find her special someone. Not understanding this angle often leads to ladies choosing the wrong man to pursue a relationship with or to end up ruining the one that they are with. This book is a great addition to any female's book collection as it zones in on the main points that a woman should focus on if she is seeking male companionship. The author has ensured that the text is laid out in a fashion that is easy to read and understand. In the dating game, all good advice is a necessary vice.

Dating Tips from a Woman's Point of View Elizabeth Meadows,2014-09-24 If you are looking for how to get laid on the first date, that's easy, take her to a bar, get her drinking, but not to the point of throwing up. After she's pretty intoxicated, giggling at everything you say, try a few advances, touching her arm, or shoulder, and see if she responds. Dance with her, and do a little grinding, and see if she grinds back. If the answers to these are yes, then offer her, since she can't drive, to come back to your place. Once she's at your place, continue with just a little more alcohol for the nerves. Don't mix alcohol. If she was doing shots at the bar, don't give her beer or wine coolers at your place, or she'll be spending the night with your toilet, not you. Give her just a few more shots, and then do the final move with a kiss. The kiss will tell it all. If she pushes you away, and doesn't take your advances, don't get discouraged, you still have a chance. Offer her to put a movie on, get a pillow and a blanket, if you have a pull out couch, great, or one big enough for you two to snuggle on. If not, let her lay back to watch the movie. Let her put her feet on your lap. I don't know many woman who would turn down a foot massage. Massaging is a great way to lead to sex. After both feet, work your way up to her calves. Hint: use lotion. It makes her feel more like it's a massage, not you just trying to grope her up. If when you get to her calves, and she's still allowing you to massage, continue on, and then get the thighs. I'm pretty sure you know where to go from there.
