This book offers an accurate placement of emails and text messages along the written/spoken continuum. Emails and text messages are also compared to letters and phone calls while a closer comparison of SMS and telegrams shows how far text messaging can be regarded as a renaissance of telegrams. Attention is further paid to multimedia messaging and questions concerning the proportion of image to text, picture categories as well as MMS dialogues are approached. The book finally comments on linguistic changes and deals with the German language community's concern with regard to the increasing use of Anglicisms.

This has not only affected the management culture but has also led to an increase in competition in terms of markets and resources. Businesses have become more customer-driven and e-business is gaining popularity. Traditional means of communication/correspondence have given way to online dealings, e-mails and chats. With such a radical shift in the approach to doing business, came the need for specialized systems to handle the various departments and functions in an organization. Management Information System or MIS is an organized and well-structured system used by organizations for the collection, storage, processing and dissemination of data in the form of information that facilitates the smooth functioning of the organization. Management information systems involve three primary resources: people, technology and information or decision-making. It is in this context, a textbook on introduction to the subject of MIS is presented to the students of Management program. Media Space 20+ Years of Mediated Life Steve Harrison,2009-06-04 Media Space: 20+ Years of Mediated Life is loosely divided into three different, but interconnected, approaches to media space research. Each part opens with an introduction that lays out how readers can best approach the book, and provides a basic guide to the theory and research literature, technological developments and other notable events to help contextualize the book. The ‘social ‘ approach uses the rhetoric and methods familiar to a CSCW audience, but moves into actual situations that involve close working bonds, broken trust, shared joy, community building, interpersonal tension, anxiety etc. The section on ‘spatial’ approaches guides the reader through an intellectual landscape of spatiality, the ‘communications’ part is a field guide to sense-making in the as-lived mediated condition, demonstrating that media space sense-making combines an understanding of in-the-moment alongside sense made of existence in the world and reflecting upon it.
