Breath Tim Winton,2008-05-27 Now a major motion picture, starring Simon Baker, Elizabeth Debicki, and Richard Roxburgh. Breath, by renowned Australian author Tim Winton, is a story of risk, of learning one's limits by challenging death. On the wild, lonely coast of Western Australia, two thrill-seeking teenage boys fall under the spell of a veteran big-wave surfer named Sando. Their mentor urges them into a regiment of danger and challenge, and the boys test themselves and each other on storm swells and over shark-haunted reefs. The boys give no thought to what they could lose, or to the demons that drive their mentor on into ever-greater danger. Venturing beyond all caution--in sports, relationships, and sex--each character approaches a point from which none of them will return undamaged.

Breathe Elise Faber,2023-07-18 He'd never been interested in settling down. Until he met her. Theo Young was single and free. And he repeated single. Eva Moreno—sports blogger, journalist, and new addition to the team's on-camera crew—had always been a thorn in his side. She was smart. She was talented. She was extremely good at her job—a job that seemed to revolve around chronicling his “exploits.” So, all that smart and talented (and it had to be said, beautiful) pointed in his direction wasn't a good thing. Because she wasn't just a thorn in his side. She was a woman who made him think of forever.

The Night That Changed Fate Ashley Christensen,2019-06-10 I've always hated moving. I hoped each time I moved, it would be the last. But now, I have to move again. The difference between this move and the past moves is that this move is to save my life. If I don't leave, it could cost me my life. Fate will make sure of that. I thought the move to Kauai, Hawaii, was just to save my life. I never dreamed that it would actually change my life. But that change turned out to be the best change that I could have ever imagined until fate intervened again.

Eva Gabor an Amazing Woman Camyl Sosa Belanger,2005-01-24 Eva Gabor an Amazing Woman is the author's story and experience during her lifetime with Eva Gabor & while writing the story she was able to write about a conspiracy theory of a group that was trying to discredit the author spreading that she never knew Eva and that everything she is writing are lies. It is unedited for a reason. The story is also about the sex vixen Eva Gabor, who was enamored not only by men but also admired by women, Eva's loves, heartaches and the one that got away and her untimely death July 4 1995 due to a freaky accident in Baja California life threatening mystery when her dreams become real. Night after night, she is transported to Dreamland, where an evil being, the Shadow, wants her dead. Exhausted from her troubled sleep, Eva stumbles through her days in a new town where her grandmother is known as an eccentric and in a new school where a bully has decided Eva needs to be put in her place. Can Eva save herself and her dreams before it's too late?

Eva Gabor an Amazing Woman Camyl Sosa Belanger, 2005-01-24 Unscrupulous is about Eva Gabor, the sex vixen that was enamored not by men but also admired by women. Later in life, after her last divorce Eva became just a human acquisition. The story is about how Eva made it, and how she built her empire. Eva's life ended due to a freaky accident, which was supposed to be a few days of rest in Baja California, to come home, and to go straight to the hospital. While in the hospital Eva was complaining for not breathing and aware, she had to be sedated to be able to connect a respirator to help Eva breathe, and after fighting for her life for fourteen days, we lost Eva on July 4th, 1995.

Learning to Breathe Fire J.C. Herz, 2015-06-02 The absorbing, definitive account of CrossFit's origins, its explosive grassroots growth, and its emergence as a global phenomenon. One of the most illuminating books ever on a sports subculture, Learning to Breathe Fire combines vivid sports writing with a thoughtful meditation on what it means to be human. In the book, veteran journalist J.C. Herz explains the science of maximum effort, why the modern gym fails an obese society, and the psychic rewards of ending up on the floor feeling as though you're about to die. The story traces CrossFit's rise, from a single underground gym in Santa Cruz to its adoption as the workout of choice for elite special forces, firefighters and cops, to its popularity as the go-to fitness routine for regular Joes and Janes. Especially riveting is Herz's description of The CrossFit Games, which begin as an informal throw-down on a California ranch and evolve into a televised global proving ground for the fittest men and women on Earth, as well as hundreds of thousands of lesser mortals. In her portrayal of the sport's star athletes, its passionate coaches and its "chief armorer," Rogue Fitness, Herz powerfully evokes the uniqueness of a fitness culture that cultivates primal fierceness in average people. And in the shared ordeal of an all-consuming workout, she unearths the ritual intensity that's been with us since humans invented sports, showing us how, on a deep level, we're all tribal hunters and first responders, waiting for the signal to go all-out.

Fields Of Gold Marie Bostwick, 2010-04-23 This would be easier if I were writing about someone else. Then I could change it, fatten up the thin parts and leave out the dull ones, turning them twice like frayed collars and cuffs, making them over into something more romantic than they really were, but then the remembering would be neither so painful, nor so sweet. I suppose you can't have one without the other. . . Evangeline Glennon knows plenty about life's highs and lows. Still, she feels lucky, surrounded as she is by people who care deeply: Papa, who's never lost his Irish brogue or the twinkle in his eye; endlessly practical, generous Mama; and steadfast best friend Ruby. Romance would be too much for a girl like Eva to expect. Then again, love has a tendency to find those who aren't looking for it. . . Out of a clear blue sky, a dashing young aviator makes an impossibly gentle landing in Papa's Oklahoma wheat field. After taking her up in his plane, Slim leaves Eva with an exhilarating new perspective--and an even more precious gift that changes her forever. But that's only the beginning. The world is changing, too--and only the strongest in body and spirit will weather what is to come. Now, while tracing from afar the progress of the brave young barnstormer she knew so briefly, Eva stitches her heart and soul into intricate quilts whose images take extraordinary form from the heartbreak and joy of parallel lives. . . A lyrical, lush, and lovely novel from a clever and talented new writer. --Jane Green A gripping, heartwarming story. . .complete with fascinating characters and a page-turning plot. --Dorothy Garlock Marie Bostwick Skinner was born and raised in the Northwest.

Marie and her family have moved a score of times, living in eight U.S. states and two Mexican cities, and collecting a vast and cherished array of friends and experiences. Marie now lives with her husband and three handsome sons in Connecticut where she writes, reads, quilts, and is privileged to serve the women of her local church.

Breath James Nestor, 2020-05-26 A New York Times Bestseller A Washington Post Notable Nonfiction Book of 2020 Named a Best Book of 2020 by NPR “A fascinating scientific, cultural, spiritual and evolutionary history of the way humans breathe—and how we’ve all been doing it wrong for a long, long time.” —Elizabeth Gilbert, author of Big Magic and Eat Pray Love No matter what you eat, how much you exercise, how skinny or young or wise you are, none of it matters if you’re not breathing properly. There is nothing more essential to our health and well-being than breathing: take air in, let it out, repeat twenty-five thousand times a day. Yet, as a species, humans have lost the ability to breathe correctly, with grave consequences. Journalist James Nestor travels the world to figure out what went wrong and how to fix it. The answers aren’t found in pulmonology labs, as we might expect, but in the muddy digs of ancient burial sites, secret Soviet facilities, New Jersey choir schools, and the smoggy streets of São Paulo. Nestor tracks down men and women exploring the hidden science behind ancient breathing practices like Pranayama, Sudarshan Kriya, and Tummo and teams up with pulmonary tinkerers to scientifically test long-held beliefs about how we breathe. Modern research is showing us that making even slight adjustments to the way we inhale and exhale can jump-start athletic performance; rejuvenate internal organs; halt snoring, asthma, and autoimmune disease; and even straighten scoliotic spines. None of this should be possible, and yet it is. Drawing on thousands of years of medical texts and recent cutting-edge studies in pulmonology, psychology, biochemistry, and human physiology, Breath turns the conventional wisdom of what we thought we knew about our most basic biological function on its head. You will never breathe the same again.

Space Physiology Jay C. Buckey, 2006 The success of any space flight mission depends not only on advanced technology but also on the health and well-being of crew members. This book, written by an astronaut physician, is the first practical guide to maintaining crew members health in space. It combines research results with practical advice on such problems as bone loss, kidney stones, muscle wasting, motion sickness, loss of balance, orthostatic intolerance, weight loss, and excessive radiation exposure. Additional topics include pre-flight preparation, relevant gender differences, long-duration medical planning, post-flight rehabilitation, and the physiology of extra-vehicular activity. Designed as a handbook for space crews, this text is also an invaluable tool for all the engineers, medical personnel, and scientists who plan and execute space missions.

Genesis K. Klein,2010-10-12 Have you ever wondered what the first humans did when they woke on this planet? How did they survive? Ed and Eva are separated in an accident that destroys their ship. Ed wakes on a beach and does not know who he is, where he is, or where he came from. They meet up later, after they each had a chance to explore this new world. They agree that they must reach their other teams who are supposed to be populating the other continents. Afterwards, they journey to the north, trying to learn about the people and animals that inhabit the place. The journey lasts long enough for them to grow old together, have a child of their own and forge friendships with the cultures they meet. Why do we look to the sky when we talk about God or The Gods? Why do we fear some of the things we fear? The story explores the beginnings of the things we believe.
