Bad News Travels Fast Gar Anthony Haywood, 1996 Retirees Dottie and Joe Loudermilk, who cruise the land in a trailer home, hit Washington, D.C., to visit their son Eddie in this humorous second entry in the series after @Going Nowhere Fast. ^

Bad News Travels Fast Jade C. Jamison, There's always bad news to be sniffed out in Winchester, Colorado... Nicki's got it bad for her best friend Sean, but she doesn't see her unrequited lust for him getting quenched anytime soon, so she buries herself in work. Shortly after interviewing a county commissioner, Nicki discovers that bad news travels fast when the commissioner's office assistant turns up dead. But one guy's bad news jumpstarts Nicki's nose for news, and she relishes the chance to do some investigative reporting. Unfortunately, when she gets too close to comfort for the murderer, she finds herself in danger of becoming the next victim... PLEASE NOTE: This book was previously published in 2011 as DEAD.

A News Story Allan Jefferys, 2003-04 A News Story tells of the time when TV news switched from being a money-losing public service to a highly successful money machine. Mitch Bellows and Anthony Hadde are news directors who provide a contrast in approach: Bellows is dedicated to truth and integrity-Hadde is motivated by power and greed. Ambition also drives some anchormen to achieve their goals, often at the expense of their core values. Others hold fast to high standards. It is impossible to tell which ones have integrity by watching them on the screen. Only by examining their off-camera behavior can the truth be uncovered. A News Story offers a revealing look behind the microphones and cameras of a TV news operation. The author has drawn on his own experiences while working in that industry, but it is not a roman à clef, even if some of the characters seem to be recognizable. A News Story is a fast-moving page-turner that pulls no punches as it delves into the lives of its characters.

Getting On-Air Raymond J. Brune, 2016-10-10 Whether your goal is to be famous, to be powerful, to be rich, to make a difference or all of the above, you can find it in TV News. Competition for jobs as a news anchor, TV host, reporter, sportscaster and weatherperson is fierce. To get one, whether locally, on cable or a major network or on-line and OTT formats, you need an action plan. That's what Getting On-Air does for you. It puts you on the fast track to a TV news career. You don't need supermodel good looks, you don't need a fancy agent, and you don't need to have a relative in the business. What you must have is a do or die attitude, a killer resume reel and most of all, you need to be compelling on camera. Those three qualities are your ticket to the on-air ride of a lifetime - the hair-on-fire, fly-by-the-seat-of-your-pants, breaking news world of TV journalism. No one is more capable of getting you noticed than veteran TV producer Raymond J. Brune. He put E!'s Giuliana Rancic on the air, and discovered The Bachelor's Chris Harrison. The first time Anderson Cooper and Robin Roberts sat in network anchor chairs, Ray was their producer in the control room. Ray's resume includes jobs as Executive Producer of Good Morning America and World News Now, Vice President of News for E! Networks and VP & GM of Fox Sports, and creator and showrunner of the highest-rated local morning show in TV history, Los Angeles' KTLA Morning News. He even produced Jerry Springer when both were starting their TV careers in Cincinnati. Ray turns everyday people into TV personalities. He shares his secrets in this book - and if you follow his advice, you will be discovered. Look what the top TV talent in the country are saying about Ray and his book: If you want to work in TV news, forget the graduate degree....buy this book! - Bobbie Battista, CNN Anchor Ray Brune is the greatest producer in the history of the world. He's very talented. I'm glad his career took off. He's doing something respectable. Look at me. Huh? - Jerry Springer I worked with Ray at E! and always appreciated his invaluable creativity, experience and insight for our news coverage. His warmth and kind way of working with people made him that much more of an asset. -Samantha Harris, Host of Dancing With The Stars You got it out of me, Ray is responsible for my entire career -Chris Harrison, Host of The Bachelor Funny you should say that, cuz he's responsible for my entire career too! - Giuliana Rancic, Host of E! News Live I met Ray Brune while I was hosting Merv Griffin's Crosswords.

His knowledge, experience and expertise were invaluable to me during production. His unique blend of instruction, advice and humor helped me to relax and focus on what really mattered. Anyone who's fortunate enough to work with Ray is sure to come away from the experience a more polished and seasoned professional. -Ty Treadway, Soap Star and Host of Merv Griffin's Crosswords

Fast and Furious Katie Pavlich,2012-04-16 No scandal is more threatening to the Obama administration than Operation Fast and Furious. While other scandals involve money, Fast and Furious involves lives, including that of Border Patrol Agent Brian Terry, gunned down with a weapon that the federal government put in the hands of Mexico's narco-terrorists.

Broadcast News Writing, Reporting, and Producing Frank Barnas,2013-05-02 Jargon buster: convergent journalism: ?Media convergence is the most significant development in the news industry in the last century. The ability to interchange text, audio, and visual communication over the Internet has fundamentally transformed the way news organizations operate. Convergence has enabled media companies to gather, disseminate, and share information over a variety of platforms. Throughout the history of journalism, it has been common for journalists to study one medium, such as traditional print or broadcast, and to anticipate a career working only in their chosen field. However, the 21st century journalist has fluidity to write and deliver news content in a variety of formats. (source: <http://www.convergencejournalism.com/>) Broadcast News Writing, Reporting, and Producing presents a solid foundation for any student learning how to become a broadcast journalist ? in today's world of convergent journalism, it is more important than ever that broadcast textbooks cover the most current trends in media. Convergent journalism (the coverage of news across multiple delivery platforms such as the internet, television, podcasts, ipods, blogs, etc) is here to stay ? broadcast journalism continues to morph as newer and more advanced content platforms are hatched and developed, and broadcast journalists must understand how to write, report, and produce for multiple platforms simultaneously. Just one crucial fact remains: students will need training on how to perform successfully in a world in which current events aren't just shown on the ten o'clock evening news. Broadcast News Writing, Reporting, and Producing will be completely overhauled to reflect the trends of convergent journalism on every page. New co-author Frank Barnas brings a multi-faceted perspective of writing, reporting, and producing that allows for multi-platform delivery systems, and shows students with real-world examples the functions and practices of today's media. The new edition will be rewritten and restructured to accommodate common 16-week course modules, and will be divided into four major sections of the news: gathering, writing, reporting, and producing. Sidebars featuring how examples used in the text relate to convergence in journalism help students to draw connections easily between current stories and trends in the industry. The comprehensive approach of this text brings a multi-faceted perspective of writing, reporting, and producing that is needed more than ever in today's world of convergent journalism. This newest edition is being completely overhauled by the experienced journalist Frank Barnas. New photos and illustrations, a restructuring of the text, expanded end-of-chapter exercises, newer and more relevant examples, and more information on producing all contribute to giving readers what they need most: a nuanced understanding of how the media of today function in a world without news boundaries.

Bad News Travels Fast Maureen Milliken,2020-08-08 When Appalachian Trail thru-hiker Lydia Manzo becomes lost in the woods of Maine, then is found dead, it sets off a chain of events that upsets the fragile peace of Redimere, Maine. While state investigators are sure Lydia killed herself, some in Redimere are sure someone killed her. As newspaper editor Bernadette Bernie O'Dea tries to sort out the truth, Police Chief Pete Novotny also disappears into the woods. Maine's northwestern High Peaks region can be a dark wilderness, but the mountains suddenly seem very crowded as Bernie searches for answers. It's another too-hot summer of deceit and death in Redimere.

One of the significant advantages of Fast News books and manuals for download is the cost-saving aspect. Traditional books and manuals can be costly, especially if you need to purchase several of them for educational or professional purposes.
