Tenancy Law and Housing Policy in Europe Christoph U. Schmid, 2018-01-26 Tenancy law has developed in all EU member states for decades, or even centuries, but constitutes a widely blank space in comparative and European law. This book fills an important gap in the literature by considering the diverse and complex panorama of housing policies, markets and their legal regulation across Europe. Expert contributors argue that while unification is neither politically desired nor opportune, a European recommendation of best practices including draft rules and default contracts implementing a regulatory equilibrium would be a rewarding step forward.

Global Housing Markets Ashok Bardhan, Robert H. Edelstein, Cynthia A. Kroll, 2011-10-27 A global look at the reasons behind the recent economic collapse, and the responses to it The speculative bubble in the housing market began to burst in the United States in 2007, and has been followed by ruptures in virtually every asset market in almost every country in the world. Each country proposed a range of policy initiatives to deal with its crisis. Policies that focused upon stabilizing the housing market formed the cornerstone of many of these proposals. This internationally focused book evaluates the genesis of the housing market bubble, the global viral contagion of the crisis, and the policy initiatives undertaken in some of the major economies of the world to counteract its disastrous affects. Unlike other books on the global crisis, this guide deals with the housing sector in addition to the financial sector of individual economies. Countries in many parts of the world were players in either the financial bubble or the housing bubble, or both, but the degree of impact, outcome, and responses varied widely. This is an appropriate time to pull together the lessons from these various experiences. Reveals the housing crisis in the United States as the core of the meltdown Describes the evolution of housing markets and policies in the run-up to the crisis, their impacts, and the responses in European and Asian countries Compares experiences and linkages across countries and points to policy implications and research lessons drawn from these experiences Filled with the insights of well-known contributors with strong contacts in practice and academia, this timely guide discusses the history and evolution of the recent crisis as local to each contributor's part of the world, and examines its distinctive and common features with that of the U.S., the trajectory of its evolution, and the similarities and differences in policy response.

La convicción David González Castro, 2012-11-10 Reflexiones de un emprendedor sobre cómo transformar con éxito un negocio ¿Y por qué no...?. ¿Cuántas veces hemos formulado esta frase y nos hemos planteado una idea nueva? ¿Y cuántas veces hemos desistido de ella, o ni siquiera la hemos tenido en cuenta un minuto después de pensarla, porque no hemos creído? ¿Porque no estábamos convencidos? David González Castro, presidente, consejero delegado y cofundador de Anuntis, expone una historia no de superación sino de convicción: la de un emprendedor que apostó por internet cuando el mundo web era un tabú y que, con convicción, esfuerzo, espíritu de equipo y anticipación, se ha convertido en referente en el sector online. Una lectura indispensable para los emprendedores que quieran poner en marcha sus ideas y para todos aquellos que, en plena marea de la crisis, no se resisten a dar nada por perdido.

The Planetary Gentrification Reader Loretta Lees, Tom Slater, Elvin Wyly, 2022-12-30 Gentrification is a global process that the United Nations now sees as a human rights issue. This new Planetary Gentrification Reader follows on from the editors' 2010 volume, The Gentrification Reader, and provides a more longitudinal (backward and forward in time) and broader (turning away from Anglo-/Euro-American hegemony) sense of developments in gentrification studies over time and space, drawing on key readings that reflect the development of cutting-edge debates. Revisiting new debates over the histories of gentrification, thinking through comparative urbanism on gentrification, considering new waves and types of gentrification, and giving much more focus to resistance to gentrification, this is a stellar collection of writings on this critical issue. Like in their 2010 Reader, the editors, who are internationally renowned experts in the field, include insightful commentary and suggested further reading. The book is essential reading for students and researchers in urban studies, urban planning, human geography, sociology, and housing studies and for those seeking to fight this socially unjust process.

La verdad sobre el mercado inmobiliario español Borja Mateo, 2012-06-08 Durante el período 2000-2006, nuestro país vivió embarcado en una auténtica vorágine inmobiliaria que produjo que la media de los precios de los inmuebles superara 13 veces el salario de un trabajador. En el año 2007 tuvo lugar la famosa crisis financiera, la cual supuso un verdadero varapalo para el sector bancario internacional y, muy especialmente, para el nuestro. Las consecuencias en el mercado inmobiliario español no se hicieron esperar: se dejaron de vender pisos y los precios comenzaron a bajar. Descubre mediante este libro, de la mano de un experto en mercado inmobiliario, las claves de lo que realmente está sucediendo en el mercado inmobiliario español, cómo los precios de los pisos han bajado más del 30% desde su cresta a mediados de 2006, el precio de los alquileres más del 35%, y entiende por qué bajarán aún más durante los próximos años. Conoce cuál es la situación real del sistema financiero español, sus consecuencias en el mercado inmobiliario y las causas de la quiebra de muchas entidades financieras. Métete en la cabeza de los políticos, las cajas/bancos y constructores/promotores/inmobiliarias y averigua lo que ellos saben y nunca te dirán, así como los métodos que ellos utilizan para inducirte a error y que tomes decisiones muy beneficiosas para ellos, pero nefastas para ti. Aprenderemos una serie de técnicas muy efectivas de negociación a la baja de precios de compra y de alquiler. El libro contiene más de 700 referencias bibliográficas y constituye, tal vez, el mejor y más actualizado estudio sobre el mercado inmobiliario español.

Handbook of Research on the Impacts, Challenges, and Policy Responses to Overtourism Ribeiro de Almeida, Cláudia, Quintano, Alfred, Simancas, Moisés, Huete, Raquel, Breda, Zélia, 2020-02-28 In recent years, the increasing number of tourists traveling to specific urban and resort destinations has caused challenges for the effective management of tourism in these areas, with a resulting negative impact on towns, cities, and host communities. Such issues have included placing undue pressure on infrastructure; destruction of the physical, economic, and socio-cultural environment; and affecting the quality of residents' daily lives by impacting their mobility and, in some cases, the price and rent of resident accommodation, goods, and services. To achieve a certain level of balance between the interests of local residents and visitors, new regulatory measures and legislation in high tourism areas must be discussed. The Handbook of Research on the Impacts, Challenges, and Policy Responses to Overtourism is a collection of innovative research on best practices and legislation solutions for the management of tourism destinations suffering from overtourism, tourismophobia, or antitourism movement issues. While highlighting topics including overcrowding, social displacement, and tourism management, this book is ideally designed for local government officials, policymakers, lawmakers, researchers, entrepreneurs, industry professionals, travel agencies, hotels, academicians, and students seeking current innovative empirical research on destination-management practices and application techniques.

Contemporary Housing Issues in a Globalized World Padraic Kenna, 2016-05-13 The globalization of housing finance led to the global financial crisis, which has created new barriers to adequate and affordable housing. It presents major challenges for current housing law and policy, as well as for the development of housing rights. This book examines and discusses key contemporary housing issues in the context of today's globalized housing systems. The book takes up the challenge of developing a new paradigm, working towards the possibility of an alternative future. Revolving around three constellations of writing by diverse contributors, each chapter sets out a clear and developed approach to contemporary housing issues. The first major theme considers the crisis in mortgage market regulation, the development of mortgage securitization and comparisons between Spain and Ireland, two countries at the epicentre of the global housing market crisis. The second thematic consideration focuses on housing rights within the European human rights architecture, within national constitutions, and those arising from new international instruments, with their particular relevance for persons with disabilities and developing economies. The third theme incorporates an examination of responses to the decline and regeneration of inner cities, legal issues around squatting in developed economies, and changes in tenure patterns away from home-ownership. This topical book will be valuable to those who are interested in law, housing rights and human rights, policy-making and globalization.

Multi-level Finance and the Euro Crisis Ehtisham Ahmad, Massimo Bordignon, Giorgio Brosio, 2016-01-29 Representing a unique contribution to the analysis and discussion of the unfolding Eurozone crisis in terms of the relationship between central and local government, this book addresses a number of important fiscal and political economy questions. To what extent have local and regional governments contributed to the crisis? To what degree have sub-national services and investments borne the brunt of the adjustments? How have multi-level fissures affected tensions between different levels of government from the supranational to the local? This volume covers these and many other critical issues that have been largely ignored despite their relevance. The book first addresses general issues of fiscal coordination and management across levels of government in the context of incentives, which can be altered by the existence of a supranational tier. The country-specific chapters, prepared by leading experts, provide a thorough review of the key problems of multi-levels of government in the biggest economies in the Eurozone (France and Germany) and Southern Europe (Portugal, Spain, Italy and Greece). In further chapters the juxtaposition of Barcelona and Turin provides an opportunity to evaluate large investments in a multi-level context, associated, in this case, with the Olympics. Macedonia provides a discussion of the related issues in an EU accession country. As a whole, the book explores the long-term impact of the crisis on local service delivery and investment, and the consequences for sustainable growth and political cohesion. It also offers rarely found insights and suggestions to increase the stability and strength of multi-level European institutions. This is an enlightening resource for all those, from academics and graduates to policy makers and practitioners, seeking a comprehensive understanding of European fiscal, federal and financial issues.
