I Gave Up Men for Lent Kacie Main,2019-02-15 Kacie Main woke up on a blurry Saturday morning, put a hand to her throbbing head, and started to recall the events from the night before. Oh shit, she thought as the evening played back spottily in her head like a Netflix movie during a storm. I can't believe I made out with David. She pulled a pillow over her face and tried to go back to sleep, not yet ready to face those consequences. By most definitions, Kacie lived a social, fulfilling life. She had a good job, great friends, solid family. Aside from the 30-something-and-single combination, her life was picture-perfect. But that was just a filter, like how the right Instagram filter can hide the circles under your eyes. The unfiltered Kacie was restless... uninspired... uncomfortable. Something had to change-- that drunken make-out with her not-single good friend was the straw that broke the camel's back. So she gave up men for Lent-- a 40-day cleanse in an attempt to figure out why she felt unhappy in her happy life.

Crystal Prophecy Monica McCabe, 2023-10-10 She's never been challenged. He'll never be an archeologist. Until the day they are thrown together on a rainforest expedition and everything changed. "This story defines adventure! The winds of fate are blowing for Scott and Jenna, and the adventure is worthy of the big screen!" Resigned: Being the only child of globe-trotting explorers is the worst thing ever. It's a nightmare of home-school, missed dates, and being dragged to Brazil so often there's zero chance of ever breaking the curse called Never Been Kissed. I'm Jenna Masters, sixteen, and the Patron Saint of Lost Causes. Defiant: Enter Scott Henley. Eighteen, medical volunteer, and totally hot brainiac forced to join our expedition as punishment for being kicked out of Harvard. Twice. Except that genius IQ of his won't help when it comes to enduring remote river tributaries and trekking through an isolated jungle to find a sacred site. It's enough of a challenge just trying to survive. Quest: Things go from bad to worse when a blind seer delivers a dire warning – A discovery looms, one surrounded in danger, chaos and fear. Evil seeks it, they must defend it. The path is set and the stakes are high. Sure, there's that whole protection of a water goddess thing, but the menacing puzzle may prove more than a savvy traveler and resourceful history whiz can conquer alone. Crystal Prophecy is a coming-of-age journey. It's finding unexpected friendship, surviving a life-threatening adventure, and falling into a discovery that defies history. It's a story of revelation and change, a hint of lost legends, and a quest to expose a long-hidden truth to the world.

I fell in love with you and I cried Rachel Hill, 2022-04-02 I fell in love with you and I cried is a spiritual, personal and travel memoir of a year in India and Southeast Asia. In April 2017 my husband and I asked ourselves, what would we do if we could do anything? We decided to sell up, leave our jobs and go travelling, along the way unpicking the conditioning of property, career and security and exploring what a life with less stuff would look like. We gave away most of our possessions and in March 2018 we went to India, where we spent seven months in all, then Thailand, Tokyo, Nepal, Cambodia and Vietnam. My book documents the trip through the eyes of a relatively inexperienced traveller. The sights, sounds and colours of India and Southeast Asia as well as the physical and emotional challenges of a year of travel. This was a pre Covid19 trip of a lifetime; making connections with local people and fellow travellers and putting beliefs about minimalism into practice by living out of a small backpack for a year of slow travel.

Vegans Are Tastier Joe DeMarco, 2011-04 Take an evolutionary journey through time and space in an unexpected vegan book that includes branding, hunting, spanking, torture, death and cannibalism. 21st Century Historian (Gentile Rainn): On occasion, before dying out and destroying themselves, the meat-eaters were seen hanging around back alleys of pubs drinking and fighting, sometimes sodomizing each other. 21st Century Historian (Herb Dean): If you look at things with hindsight, the meat-eaters never really had a chance. I mean, they were so hypocritical to the point where they would have one animal, whom they loved and cared for, living with them (Some of these animals were referred to as dogs. Note the dyslexic reference to God), and in the same moment would bleed and suffer another animal so they could devour its charred flesh for supper. Local Vegan (Said Huster): The idea that vegetarians and meat-eaters were both Homo sapiens is a post-mortem thought gone the way of the moo-cow. Homo sapiens were by nature very self-gratifying. In other words, they didn't care what they murdered or whom they hurt in crimes of hunger and passion. They acted very cruelly towards one another. Religions were developed to try to right these instinctual behaviors, but these religions did little to deter most Homo sapiens hell-bent on self-delusions of pride. Sometime around the turn of the twenty-fourth century, the first true Homo nexus was born. (See also Homo vegetare.) 21st Century Historian (Herb Dean): Moo-cows became extinct, though it is unknown whether this happened before or after the demise of the human (meat-eater) omnivore. A strain of CuuD Disease (almost always spelled capital C, lower case u, lower case u, capital D), a mutation of mad cow disease, killed roughly 99 percent of the cows, roughly two-thirds of the carnivores on the land, and most human omnivores. It is believed the other human omnivores destroyed themselves through wars, terrorist acts and unhealthy diets, or starved to death rather than eat vegetables. 21st Century Historian (Willow Whittier): It is said the last meat-eater died sometime around the turn of the 23rd century. His name was said to have been Ronald McDonald.
