Fluent Forever Gabriel Wyner, 2014-08-05 NATIONAL BESTSELLER • For anyone who wants to learn a foreign language, this is the method that will finally make the words stick. “A brilliant and thoroughly modern guide to learning new languages.”—Gary Marcus, cognitive psychologist and author of the New York Times bestseller Guitar Zero At thirty years old, Gabriel Wyner speaks six languages fluently. He didn't learn them in school—who does? Rather, he learned them in the past few years, working on his own and practicing on the subway, using simple techniques and free online resources—and here he wants to show others what he's discovered. Starting with pronunciation, you'll learn how to rewire your ears and turn foreign sounds into familiar sounds. You'll retrain your tongue to produce those sounds accurately, using tricks from opera singers and actors. Next, you'll begin to tackle words, and connect sounds and spellings to imagery rather than translations, which will enable you to think in a foreign language. And with the help of sophisticated spaced-repetition techniques, you'll be able to memorize hundreds of words a month in minutes every day. This is brain hacking at its most exciting, taking what we know about neuroscience and linguistics and using it to create the most efficient and enjoyable way to learn a foreign language in the spare minutes of your day.

Lewis argues that you don't need a great memory or the language gene to learn a language quickly, and debunks a number of long-held beliefs, such as adults not being as good of language learners as children.

French Lessons Alice Kaplan, 2018-04-19 “[A] cultural odyssey, a brave attempt to articulate the compulsions that drove [Kaplan] to embrace foreignness in order to become truly herself.” —The Washington Post Book World Brilliantly uniting the personal and the critical, French Lessons is a powerful autobiographical experiment. It tells the story of an American woman escaping into the French language and of a scholar and teacher coming to grips with her history of learning. In spare, midwestern prose, by turns intimate and wry, Kaplan describes how, as a student in a Swiss boarding school and later in a junior year abroad in Bordeaux, she passionately sought the French “r,” attentively honed her accent, and learned the idioms of her French lover. When, as a graduate student, her passion for French culture turned to the elegance and sophistication of its intellectual life, she found herself drawn to the language and style of the novelist Louis-Ferdinand Celine. At the same time, she was repulsed by his anti-Semitism. At Yale in the late 70s, during the heyday of deconstruction she chose to transgress its apolitical purity and work on a subject “that made history impossible to ignore”: French fascist intellectuals. Kaplan’s discussion of the “de Man affair” —the discovery that her brilliant and charismatic Yale professor had written compromising articles for the pro-Nazi Belgian press—and her personal account of the paradoxes of deconstruction are among the most compelling available on this subject. French Lessons belongs in the company of Sartre’s Words and the memoirs of Nathalie Sarraute, Annie Ernaux, and Eva Hoffman. No book so engrossingly conveys both the excitement of learning and the moral dilemmas of the intellectual life.

Ultralearning Scott Young,2019-08-06 Now a Wall Street Journal bestseller. Learn a new talent, stay relevant, reinvent yourself, and adapt to whatever the workplace throws your way. Ultralearning offers nine principles to master hard skills quickly. This is the essential guide to future-proof your career and maximize your competitive advantage through self-education. In these tumultuous times of economic and technological change, staying ahead depends on continual self-education—a lifelong mastery of fresh ideas, subjects, and skills. If you want to accomplish more and stand apart from everyone else, you need to become an ultralearner. The challenge of learning new skills is that you think you already know how best to learn, as you did as a student, so you rerun old routines and old ways of solving problems. To counter that, Ultralearning offers powerful strategies to break you out of those mental ruts and introduces new training methods to help you push through to higher levels of retention. Scott H. Young incorporates the latest research about the most effective learning methods and the stories of other ultralearners like himself—among them Benjamin Franklin, chess grandmaster Judit Polgár, and Nobel laureate physicist Richard Feynman, as well as a host of others, such as little-known modern polymath Nigel Richards, who won the French World Scrabble Championship—without knowing French. Young documents the methods he and others have used to acquire knowledge and shows that, far from being an obscure skill limited to aggressive autodidacts, ultralearning is a powerful tool anyone can use to improve their career, studies, and life. Ultralearning explores this fascinating subculture, shares a proven framework for a successful ultralearning project, and offers insights into how you can organize and execute a plan to learn anything deeply and quickly, without teachers or budget-busting tuition costs. Whether the goal is to be fluent in a language (or ten languages), earn the equivalent of a college degree in a fraction of the time, or master multiple tools to build a product or business from the ground up, the principles in Ultralearning will guide you to success.

HOW TO LEARN FRENCH IN 30 DAYS Alice Zanzottera,2022-07-25 This book will make you learn FRENCH in just 30 days, from scratch. And this is more than just a simple promise. I explain to you... The method is very simple: the book is divided into 30 chapters, one for each day, to allow you to learn the basics of this language in just one month. To get the most from this course, you just have to follow a rule: read one chapter a day, no more, no less. If you respect this rule and follow the instructions contained in the book, the result is guaranteed. Forget the usual boring grammar courses, having an anonymous and depersonalized profile. HOW TO LEARN FRENCH IN 30 DAYS has been conceived with all of the trimmings of self-help, as a practical manual, being as personal, fun and motivating as possible. It is full of curious anecdotes and useful advice not only to speak FRENCH, but also to get by on the road. If you are still not convinced, keep reading ... From the author's introduction ... The aim of this volume is to guarantee you the basic principles to follow in situations of “ordinary madness”, when you are in a French-speaking country. To be precise, I should perhaps say French, as the Francophony includes countries which are very different from each other for linguistic and cultural variations ... this is anyway a topic we will deal with further on. How many times have you happened to improvise a word when eating in a restaurant abroad? Maybe you didn't even know what you were ordering ... Well, it also occurs to the best. So, let's see how to give free rein to our creativity with some more knowledge. This course works very simply. The only thing you need to do is to read one lesson a day. As you can see from the abstract, all topics are shared into 30 units. The length I have chosen to deal with each topic follows this line, indeed, so as not to overwhelm you with too much superfluous information. We will address the main grammatical topics with a fun method that is based on daily situations of communication. As you progress on this path, feel free to go back and review those topics that will seem less clear for you. For further in-depth studies and explanations, Internet offers a myriad of resources for free. I suggest you to choose the most reliable sources, for example some well-known dictionary, thanks to which you may learn the specific use of a word and its context of use (...). Would you like to ask a coffee in a café parisien without hesitation? Or order a dish in a typical bistrot without incurring unpleasant inconveniences? Or just ask where the toilette is? Here, then you have chosen the book that's right for you!
