Princess Perripraxis not only has to find a fiancé—and fast—she's got to find one who doesn't mind that her "no makeup" face has green and purple scales. Otherwise, Daddy Dearest has plans that don't include Perri's compliance. Candidate Number One: Her sexy human best friend, Brandt. Bartender Brandt Turner didn't need all those years in the army to teach him never to leave a man behind. Or an alien princess in need of a pretend fiancé. If she needs someone to play the lovesick fool to convince her dad to let her stay on Earth, well then, he'll let the world think Cupid finally took him out. But Perri's father has no intention of playing nice—and he's not above cruel and unusual alien torture to make things go his way. Universal Servicebook Peter Nutt, 2013-09-11 The Universal Servicebook contains information on a variety of popular tagging systems. Information has been compiled using data from our own workshop analysis and field experience (30 years experience in the E.A.S. industry) . The aim of the manual is to cover many equipment types, therefore the information is of a concise nature, the manual assumes the user has a basic knowledge of electronics and has had a previous introduction to tagging systems. Each piece of equipment is presented in steps, consistent with those followed during an installation or major service. This version of Universal Servicebook was first published in hardback in 2004, it has had some items edited for this 2013 ebook version.

Growing Sideways in Twenty-first Century British Culture Anne Malewski, 2021-12-15 This volume examines changing boundaries between childhood and adulthood in British society and culture at the beginning of the twenty-first century – where these age boundaries are widely debated, policed, and contested – to investigate alternatives to conventional ideas of growing up. Building on observations, especially in children’s literature criticism, that human growth is shaped by a grand narrative that privileges adulthood, and on terminologies of non-normative growth, particularly in queer theory, this monograph develops growing sideways as a concept that queers this grand narrative by destabilising childhood and adulthood, and the boundaries between them. The concept is refined through close readings of twenty-first century British children’s literature, television series, film, and participatory events, troubling age boundaries via specific strategies in three conceptual areas: appearance, play, and space. Exploring power structures around age and gender, this monograph traces growing sideways as a distinct and important alternative discourse of human growth.

Test of Fortitude Andy Kasch, 2022-11-10

Protecting your home is best accomplished from your enemy's front yard. Five years after the malicious attack by the unknown dark ships, Tora has achieved an unparalleled military buildup. The Torians are now the alpha male of the Erobian Sphere and have taken to making regular patrols in whatever regions they see fit—but especially along the outer rim where the High General has come to “sense” covert enemy activity. When a fresh piece of happenstance intelligence only further fans those flames of suspicion, he convinces his old Earthling friend Brandon Foss to undertake a special mission. The plan has its risks, but it may be the only way to flush the enemy out into an open confrontation away from Torian space.

Unbeknownst to Brandon or the Torian military, three younger-generation Earthlings and their unique pet have also ventured out across the sphere—where they unwittingly tread on a hidden enemy base. Jumper, Alan, and Kayla's goofily-botched vacation plans land them at a critical point in the enemy's farthest advancement. Finding themselves alone, disparaged, and far from home, the three friends have no way of realizing that the manner in which they now cope with their rocky circumstances may well affect the course of the entire war. And oh yeah. There's:

- Intense space battles
- Intriguing aliens with unusual attributes and abilities
- New technology

advancements and, um, enlightening spiritual revelations • Climbing, running, ducking, shooting, hovering, crouching, pouncing • Trial by fire for eco-political ideals • And of course, an evil flute that sounds like a drum

As Taz works with Rylando and his unusual squad of trained animal helpers to free a desperate group of citizens, she puts her life on the line to protect her partner's beloved creatures.
