Glow Stick C. Wilson,2015-03-24 Camille Watson is not a cheerleader. And, at 5 foot 8, with a few extra pounds on her, she doesn't really fit into the cheerleader mold. The skimpy little outfits aren't really her style, and her wild curly brown hair wouldn't fit into a ponytail. Camille was fine with that, because Camille was okay with Camille. It was the people around her that had problems. They had problems with her weight, her clothes and the way she lived her life. But, Camille simply didn't care. She was 17 and she wanted to do was enjoy her senior year. That's when things took a turn for the worse. The teasing at school became unbearable, and Camille started to wonder if maybe the people around her had a point. Daniel Hanson is the new guy in town. At 6 foot 6 with bleach blonde hair, he stuck out more than Camille, and was an easy target at Green River High. He hoped to get a fresh start in a new place and forget about his old high school. Fresh starts aren't easy to come by. When Daniel is forced into a corner, he and Camille join forces. They take on the bullies of the school together, and they learn that sometimes you have to break before you shine.
