Bible Stories Through the Year Bob Hartman,2013-08-23 Every week churches around the world will hear several passages from the Scriptures. These are likely to be taken from the Revised Common Lectionary, The Lectionary works on a three-year cycle, switching at the start of Advent. Year A starts again at Advent 2013. Bob Hartman provides two alternative retellings each week for one of the Bible readings from Year A. These are designed to be child-friendly but engaging to adults as well. The forms vary from week to week, and include 'telling tips'. For churches that do not use the Lectionary, this will remain a valuable resource of great Bible stories.

Cobweb the Cat Marie Rippel,Renée LaTulippe,2019 Our All About Reading program is unique in the world of language arts because it is the only multisensory reading program that will teach your child all the fundamentals of reading. We have no gaps--just a full, rich, research-centered program that is guaranteed to teach your child to read. Our pre-reading program teaches five essential pre-reading skills that we call the Big Five Skills. Research shows that these skills prevent reading failure by educating pre-readers in how language works--in essence, familiarizing children with written text and how it is used, so they are prepared to read. In Levels 1-4, our program will teach your child all five Key Components of Reading: Phonological Awareness, Phonics and Decoding, Vocabulary, Fluency, and Reading Comprehension. Every one of these components, when taught in concert with the others, is essential to your child's success in reading. This totally integrated approach to teaching reading ensures your child will not only learn to read with All About Reading, but will learn to read well. and since reading is at the heart of all learning, fluency in this skill is one of the most important gifts you can give your child.--Teacher's Manual, back cover

The Last List of Miss Judith Kratt Andrea Bobotis,2019-07-09 An amazing novel, one which interrogates, with such controlled and beautiful writing, what it means to be Southern. Utilizing a unique form and a carefully crafted mystery, Bobotis is a writer capable of deep truths, and this novel announces her as a major voice. —Kevin Wilson, author The Family Fang, Perfect Little World, and Baby, You're Gonna Be Mine Judith inherited all the Kratt family had to offer — the pie safe, the copper clock, the murder that no one talked about. She's presided over the house quite well, thank you very much, admittedly with some help from her companion, Olva. But her wayward younger sister suddenly returns home after decades, sparking an inventory of all that belongs to them. Set in the hard-luck cotton town of Bound, South Carolina — which the Kratts used to rule but which now struggles to contain its worst instincts — the new household overflows with memories. Interweaving the present with chilling flashbacks from one fateful evening in 1929, Judith pieces together a list of what matters. Untangling the legacy of the family misfortunes will require help from every one of them, no matter how tight their bond, how long they've called Bound home, or what they own.
