Grandma's Story Angela Foster,2011-05-01 Sarah and Julia love to visit their Grandmother for their weekly story time. This week Grandma tells the story of a newspaper editor who, in 1846 Portland, Maine, was informed of a real singing mouse. After much consideration, he decides to investigate. On the first visit to the man who owns the mouse, the editor is disappointed because the mouse does nothing. The owner convinces the editor to return for a second visit, insisting the mouse will sing then. On the second visit, the editor will find out if the mouse can sing or if it's just a hoax. This is based on a true story.

As the story goes on, both grandma and the unwanted guest learned about the concept of cause and effect. They learned that when we are nice to others, they will be nice to us. In this short story, your child will learn the important lesson that we must treat others as we want to be treated. QikyKidz has created these Life Lessons for Kids to teach them about life as they grow up. Mr. Knozi wants for each child to ask as many questions as it takes for them to understand today's lesson.

Grandma's Amazing Arm Durr,2015-10-06 Grandma's Amazing Arm The Adventures of Malia Mouse is the author's true story about hope and survival, encouragement and unexpected blessings that followed an unforeseen medical crisis. However, it was the goodness and shared talents of two Godly men from two opposite industries - the Entertainment and Medical professions - who came together, transferred their skills and shared their unique gifts and talents, which changed the course of her life forever. This amazing gift allowed June the opportunity to proudly stand out and use her professional spotlight to encourage and highlight the goodness of others.

Grandpa & Grandma's Stories Geetika Goyal,2014-03-04 There was a time when children used to go to their grandpa and grandma often. In a playful way, they would learn and absorb the beautiful values of life. But today, when everyone is becoming busier, at such a time, it is only the stories which can bring us closer to the future generation. Those moments at night before sleeping, when we and our little ones enjoy the stories together, are invaluable. In these moments, unknowingly, the love between us becomes stronger, and the children learn the first lesson of their lives—the value of beautiful relationships. The attempt has been to see each story through the eyes of a child, and to listen to each story with the ears of a child, and understand it with a child's heart. The effort has been that if there is any word which pricks their innocent minds, then that should not reach them through the medium of these stories. The effort here has been that each story has a positive end, from which the dreams of the children get a positive beginning.

Jasmine And Her Friends Faye Round,2014-11-06 The qualities found in cats are so important to many people. Research finds that cats perceive humans as just bigger cats, and they choose to live with us. Each cat has its own personality. They observe everything. They give up much of their independence to please us and in turn be protected by us. Cats can be loving, devoted friends as we endure our life's struggles. Their purrs are magical to our ears and can be consoling to our bodies. As children hold, stroke, and pet them, they can receive much pleasure from having a smaller creature to care for, to play with, and to take care of.
