Making a Monstrous Halloween Chris Kullstroem,2009-05-27 Halloween is one of the most popular holidays, known for its fun and creativity for all ages. This work offers instructions and tips for Halloween-related activities and events for a variety of settings, from school to work to home to the local graveyard. History, crafts, decorations, games, trips, and other seasonal activities are described in detail.

Zombie War Drac Von Stoller, Infection was spreading rapidly throughout the entire world that all the scientists could not stop with any vaccine. All they could do is hope it would end soon but this deadly virus was unstoppable. Total chaos was all this world would be seeing from now on. Fires erupted everywhere and people who were not infected wished for death. Money had absolutely no value in any country. No leader had the guts to nuke every inch of the earth so they went underground in bunkers for safety but that would not last long.

Off With Their Heads! Drac Von Stoller, Queen Victoria took being a queen to the head literally. Anyone she did not like would be sent to the chopping block where she became famous for "Off with their heads," and off they went, but one day that would all change when she yelled out "Off with his head." When the guillotine rope was being released and the blade came down it stopped within inches of the man's neck. Then there was silence from the queen and spectators. Everyone's jaw dropped because the queen was always successful at every execution. The queen immediately got up from her chair and raced over to ask her henchmen why they failed. The queen yelled out in anger "Do it again!" So, the henchmen examined the guillotine and got it ready again. The queen sat back down in her chair and said "No one leaves my execution with their heads still attached to their body." The queen again yelled out "Off with his head!" Again the blade came down inches from his neck and stopped. This infuriated the queen and she would stop at nothing to get this man back on the chopping block. The queen had to release the man because of the botched execution and scheduled the execution the next morning. The queen was laughed at by the spectators for failing at what she was famous for. Jokes were said around town about the queen's botched execution, but the queen refused to let one botched execution break her spirit. The queen loved to look at her castle from a distance and see all the severed heads hanging over the castle walls from her executions this made her feel inferior to anyone.

The Organ Collector Drac Von Stoller, Luther Gray was what you'd call an oddball because of his fascination with the dead. Luther always wanted to be a doctor but never got the opportunity because his father wanted him to inherit the family business and carry on the tradition like he did for his father when the business was passed on to him after his father died. Education was never stressed in his family and if Luther made bad grades at school his father could care less so with no one to encourage Luther to excel at school he just dropped out in the eighth grade and helped his father with odd jobs at the funeral home. As Luther got older his brain never developed beyond his eighth-grade education which caused him to be shy and reserved with no friends outside the funeral home. He was very proud of his work at his father's funeral home, but he soon became bored with just draining dead people's blood from their bodies on the cold slab. One day when his father had to go into town and run some errands, this gave Luther a great opportunity to act out his fantasy. Luther said to himself while he was wiping the dripping blood from the shiny blade he used a thousand times on the dead on the cold slab, "I'll just remove one organ and my father will never know." Luther removed the intestines to make himself a belt to hold up his baggy pants. Luther felt really cool about what he had done and that his father would never find out his dirty little secret. Luther didn't realize he desecrated a human body because the organ that he removed wasn't for science but for Luther's own sick pleasure. Luther's father returned shortly after finishing his last errand and said to Luther "Is everything okay?" Luther replied, "Everything is just fine Father." Unbeknownst to his father this was just the start of Luther's peculiar behavior.

Town of The Dead Drac Von Stoller, Life in the small town of Castile Springs was pretty boring. The only excitement this little town ever saw was bingo day only because it was one hundred percent retirement population, but that was all about to change when Sarah being younger than the rest in the town thought this quiet little town would be a good place to work on her first novel for the summer. Her first night in the town was pleasant until the owner of the house she was renting from asked her what her plans were. Sarah replied, "I am working on my first novel and was looking for a small town for some peace and quiet to finish it." The owner chimed in and said, "Are you sure this is the place you really want to write your book?" "Oh, yes this is the perfect place," replied Sarah. The owner did not like her answer so he said "I'm sure there are other towns besides this one. This town only has old people residing here, I'm sure you will be bored not having anyone to talk to." Sarah quietly answered saying "I'm a bit of a bore myself, so I think if I decided to make this my permanent residence I wouldn't be any bother to anyone." The owner answered in a low tone of voice saying "You know you can always change your mind in the morning." Sarah said "Thanks for your concern, but I really need to start writing, so if you don't mind closing the door behind you and if I decide otherwise you'll be the first to know." "Okay," replied the owner, in a voice of frustration. After the owner closed the front door to the house she said to herself, "That man sure is an odd one and not very interested when I said that I may not leave when my novel is finished."

The Nazi Ghost Train Drac Von Stoller, It was 1944, and it wouldn't be long before World War II was over, and the Germans would be defeated by the United States and the help of other allies. War is hell, and the haunting memory of the atrocities that went on with innocent people in the concentration camps would go unpunished for many SS Nazi soldiers. But some of that would not be the case when they boarded a train and headed back to their homes to their families. There was laughter, smoking, and plenty of beer to celebrate even though they lost the war. These soldiers were just glad it was over and ready to put this horrid memory behind them all and lead healthy life with their families when they got back home. As for this bloodthirsty cold as ice SS soldiers, this train ride was bound for hell. Somehow ten minutes into the trip, the engineer suffered a massive heart attack and didn't have time to slow the train down to a complete stop. So, the train was running full speed ahead on a course for self-destruction. None of the soldiers had a clue that moments later they would all be dead. The soldiers were too absorbed in the moment of laughter and drunkenness to notice that something went wrong. If the engineer were still alive, he would have slowed the train down. Then quickly made the turn around the curve but since he isn't the train jumped the track, and all the rail cars broke apart, sending all the SS Nazi soldiers to their deaths. When the train never arrived at the train station, the families of the soldiers knew something was wrong and notified the police to investigate immediately.

The Ghost of Old Sheb Drac Von Stoller, Do you ever get the feeling sometimes when you're all alone in your house or cabin in the woods especially when you're watching a scary movie with the lights out and it's storming outside that any moment someone or something is going to open the door and scare the hell out of you? Sometimes when you're getting a little scared while watching the movie the door you thought was closed all the way just happens to open and intensifies the situation even more. Then you nervously and slowly go to the door and shut it so you'll feel safe again and continue to watch your movie and even turn the lights on to bring the scare factor down to a minimum. This is where the story begins. Tom, Linda, Jack, and Susan loved camping and hiking out in the woods. Tom's cabin was the place for a weekend of fun, but this time their little fun-filled weekend at Tom's cabin would be filled with terror and murder.

Pirate Ghost Ships Drac Von Stoller, During the year 1629, a pirate ship called the Salty Dog sailed the seven seas killing and looting every ship in its path. The Salty Dog's reign of terror lasted for seven years before it was sunk by another ruthless bunch of scallywags manning another pirate ship called the Scallywag. Captain de Plank and his men felt confident that their ship the Scallywag would be able to rule the seven seas longer than the Salty Dog but just as the Salty Dog met its fate so shall the Scallywag. The Scallywag's reign of terror on the seven seas only lasted a year longer than the Salty Dog's did but not because another pirate ship sunk it but because the Scallywag's ship was poorly maintained so when the next fierce storm came upon them it was a definite sink.

Till Death Do Us Part Drac Von Stoller, Tom and Brenda had been married for over forty-five years and all the love they once knew was gone. They fought constantly, but neither one of them had the guts to leave fearing if they divorced they would lose their beautiful mansion, and expensive cars so they both just stayed together only for the material side of the marriage. Every time they fought they would say to each other "I wish you were dead!" They both meant it wholeheartedly. They both slept in separate rooms and slept with one eye open fearing the other one would do them in. Brenda still cooked for her husband out of guilt. One night when they sat at the dinner table eating the dinner she cooked for them she decided to add a little surprise to his meal. She put some roaches in his mashed potatoes and with a big smile on her face she watched him shovel the mashed potatoes into his mouth, but it only took seconds for him to realize something was not right. When he spit out the mashed potatoes onto his plate one of the roaches was not quite dead yet and crawled out of the mashed potatoes. Tom said, "What in the hell is going on here?" Brenda laughed and said, "You should have seen the look on your face." Tom yelled back "I don't find any of this very funny!" He threw his napkin down on the plate and said "I'm going to get me something else!" She just laughed as he slammed the front door behind him as he got in his car and sped down the road in search of a fast-food restaurant.

The Mysterious Disappearance of The Sara Ann Drac Von Stoller, It was one of the happiest days of Sara Ann's life, it was spring break and her father bought a new boat. He wanted to surprise his daughter and take her on her first trip on a boat in the ocean. Sara lost her mother a few years ago to cancer, and her father took it hard and knew in his heart no other woman could ever fill that hole in his heart so he just focused on his only daughter Sara Ann, and made sure she never did without, and always put her first because Sara was very close to her mother, and he had not always been around because of working so many hours at his job and decided to do the best he could to raise her in a loving home so she could grow up and be the best person she could like her mother. Sara's father bought the boat so he could spend more time with his daughter and let her see the beauty of the ocean even though it was short-lived. Sara's father blindfolded his daughter and took her to his barn where he hid the boat from Sara for a surprise. When Sara entered the barn her father took off the blindfold and Sara said "It's beautiful father." Then her father said I've got another surprise and he took her by the hand around the other side of the boat and said "You can open your eyes now." Sara cried tears of joy and said "That's my name!" Her father chimed in and said, "I named the boat after you because when you were born it was the happiest day of your mom and I lives." Sara gave her dad a hug and thanked him. Her father said, "Why don't we take it for a spin?" Sara said, "That would be so cool!" "I can only be gone for an hour because I promised my friends I would go with them on our spring break." Her father replied, "That's fine I know you're excited about going on this trip and there will always be more trips on the boat in the days to come." "Remember, I was young once too and I could not wait to go on spring break with my friends so no big deal." Sara's father hooked up the boat to his truck and the two drove happily to the dock and set sail in the ocean on a clear beautiful sunny day. Even though Sara's father read the stories about the Bermuda Triangle, he just thought they were all explainable and not mysterious disappearances as were written about in many books.

Mommy, I'm Scared Drac Von Stoller, Carol Anne would always fear the night because she knew when she laid her head down on her pillow her nightmares would suffocate her as she squeezed her doll with all her might as though it would be her last. Every night just shortly after midnight she would scream out for her mommy, but the screams would soon go unnoticed because when her mother would come in and check on her she would find no reason to believe her daughter's fear. To make matters worse she had no bedroom door so anything she saw at her door would only ignite the situation. Every morning when she sat with her mother at the kitchen table for breakfast reliving the experience of her nightmares over and over in hopes her mother would believe what she was telling her was not a dream. Finally, her mother said, "If you don't stop this nonsense you are going to get the spanking of your life." Carol just looked in her mother's cold dark eyes as tears flowed down her cheeks saying "Mommy, don't worry when morning comes I won't be sitting at the breakfast table pleading with you to believe what I say is true." Again night came and Carol Anne climbed into her bed knowing this would probably be the last time she screamed and held her dolly in her arms for comfort.

Stay Dead Drac Von Stoller, Every time the month of October came around in the small town of Hellon the townspeople knew it was going to be a hell of a month and when I mean hell I mean hell for them all. The way it all began was when a man by the name of old man Lester who never gave anybody any trouble was being constantly picked on by the townspeople finally snapped one day and decided if his life should end he would come back from the dead and turn the town upside down to let them never forget what they did to him. Well it looks like old man Lester got his wish because when October came around some of the townspeople decided to take it just a little bit too far and Lester suffered a massive heart attack and died, but just before his heart gave out he told his tormentors that every October for 31 days he would bring hell upon this town like they've never experienced before in their lives. The men that caused his death just stood there and laughed because they all knew Lester would never hurt a fly, but they were dead wrong.
