Saplings and Spades David Parkins,2018-11-05 As a young boy, David witnessed bulldozers obliterate a forest for a bypass. Decades later, he resolved to replace the annihilated trees with another wood. Starting from nothing, he set about the task. It was not easy; there was vastly more to woodland establishment than planting saplings. Writing informally, David recalls the triumphs and disasters of his undertaking. Success was hard-won and ultimately depended on an overlooked truth... Splendidly illustrated with aerial photos, this is the must read book for those wanting, or wondering what it is like, to plant a new wood of their own.

Savage Spades K.D Clark,2020-02-25 “What do you want? Come out here to spill more Whiskey on me with your gang?” she snapped, losing her patience. “Where did you guys even come from. This isn’t a motorcycle bar ya know. I have regular customers who wouldn’t appreciate your obnoxious friends.” “Brothers.” “What?” “They’re my brother and you mean the old pervert and the divorced lady who were in here? Those are your regulars?” The last thing Cam needs right now is the town’s motorcycle club taking over her bar. The failing bar that her father left her to deal with along with a loan from a dangerous man named Venom. On top of that, she’s trying to get through her classes without failing. She doesn’t have time for the blue-eyed monster of a man that can’t keep his eyes off her. But damn he would be a good distraction.

Edinburgh Book of Days Michael T R B Turnbull,2012-02-29 Drawn from original records, diaries and contemporary reports, The Edinburgh Book of Days contains a momentous, calamitous or intriguing event or fact for every day of the year, from the earliest periods of Edinburgh's history to the present. Among these are extracts about politics, crime, religion, education, sport and the arts; all topics that resonate in today’s world. This informative and fascinating little book will enthrall residents and visitors alike, revealing how the hopes and fears of our ancestors are not so far from our own.
