Fit and Health Log Therlee Gipson,2012-05-01 Introduction Diabetes are going to destroy the United States. This all could be prevented if we would turn the clock back to eating only free range meat and more fruit and vegetables with a minimum of artificial stimulants and antibiotics to hasten their growth. We must alter our lifestyles or be doomed to our own self centered greed and unhealthy consumption. Most Illness are self-inflicted. The human body has a super natural designed healing system that can meet most of its problems without outside intervention. Even when outside help is needed, healing is enhanced if the patient can be kept free of emotional devastation and panic. Emotional trauma impairs immune function by decreasing the body's interleukins vital immune defense substances. Panic constricts blood vessels, putting additional burden on the heart. Depression intensifies existing diseases that open the door to other ailments. There is a direct connection between our mental state and the ability of our immune system to do its job. Keep your mind-set positive and free from depression, unnecessary emotional stress which can induces illness. Other words, REFUSE to get involved in a confrontation with anyone, no matter what the issue is. DO NOT allow the daily grime of living and coping take control of your mental health. Bottom line, your body will suffer the consequences by weakening your immune system. Lets face the facts. We do not take care of our bodies. We eat thing that taste good and over indulge in those foods. We have bad drinking habit of some beverages. We have substance abuse of prescription and non-prescription drugs. We are not active doing chores around our homes. Apartment dwellers are even less active; they are couch potatoes. We as a nation have evolved into a fast food society. This is a bad sign for the future of our health care system. The projection for medical cost for preventable medical ailments will run into the trillion of dollars annually in less than 10 years. Medical Care alone will bankrupt our country. Something must be done to change what we consume and reduce unnecessary stress and depression we put upon our bodies. This is an urgent situation we have gotten ourselves into; unfortunate, none of our leaders don't know or really don't care. Take heed and monitor your body on what you consume.

This is an urgent situation we have gotten ourselves into; unfortunate, none of our leaders don't know or really don't care. Take heed and monitor your body on what you consume. You have only one life and if you love yourself you will do your best to stay healthy. Practice good clean living habits. You know your body better than anyone. Get plenty of rest and have time for yourself alone at times. Relax and let NOTHING, I mean NOTHING make you upset. Stay away from stressful situations. You ought to know human nature by now. You cannot change the World or anyone else except yourself. Live your life from day to day. This does not mean you have to be hermit or a fanatic.....You can have associates and get together at time, but keep yourself at peace with yourself by not over committing to something you cannot achieve. You and only you know your limits. Adhere to them and you won't be over burden with commitments. The subject of junk food.....You can have yourself a treat from time to time. What does life mean if you cant enjoy a candy bar or an ice cream cone every now and then. We still have our childhood with us and it will be with us until we die. Keeping records in this log book: Only You can maintain Your Health LOG might extend your life. You might say one day after you reach 100 years old, thank you Therlee for extending my life by creating this book to keep a log on my daily routine and habits; I hope that statement comes true to everyone who purchase my log book.--Therlee Gipson

Best Fitness and Health Log Therlee Gipson,2011-11-09 Introduction Diabetes are going to destroy the United States. This all could be prevented if we would turn the clock back to the fifties. Americans did mostly physical work in factories and on farms. Today with lack of exercise because of our modern lifestyle of sedentary jobs using computers and automobiles. No wonder we are suffering as a Nation. We must alter our lifestyles or be doomed to our own self centered greed and unhealthy consumption. United States must advocate Fitness and healthy living or else. Fact: Regular physical activity - even at moderate levels - reduces the risk of heart disease, cancer, high blood pressure, and obesity. Here is another fact: 65% of Americans are considered obese. So while the risks associated with not exercising are clear, we don't seem to be doing anything to change our sedentary ways. Most Illness are self-inflicted. The human body has a super natural designed healing system that can meet most of its problems without outside intervention.
