Holiday Mayhem Doug Forrester,2014-12-11 Do you view holidays as something to dread if not fear? Do you or do someone you know finds the time spent with family during holidays to be absolutely loathsome and full of drama and stress? If so, this book is for you! Doug Forrester, relates the often hilarious anecdotal stories of his own family's holiday get-togethers while at the same time relaying important lessons on what he learned and what you may learn from as well. This book does not seek to castigate or shame those who do not get the holidays; instead it offers practical advice that you can use to make your holidays a little merrier. Holiday Mayhem is for those looking for new ideas and solutions to create a happier holiday season for their own families or for those interested in getting a good laugh at how dysfunctional and often (unintentionally) funny family holiday events can be!

Christmas Mayhem Kayla Isaac, 2020-12-20 The holidays are supposed to be a time of joy and love with your family. But the holidays with the Garrett family is like getting water and oil to mix; it isn't happening. When the family finally comes together for the holidays, mayhem is sure to break loose. After five years of being away from her judgmental, hypocritical family, Tru is dragged to Charleston, South Carolina for the holidays. All her life she's done nothing but live up to her parents expectations. Still being viewed as a bougie brat by some of her family, she still tries to impress them, regardless of the mental and emotional strain it puts on her. All she wants for the holidays is to have her family accept her and be proud of her for once. Syaire, Tru's older sister is living the life others would kill for. Married to a brain surgeon and raising three beautiful kids was something she always wanted. Having already traveled around the entire world, Syaire's only worry is outdoing her competition, her little sister Tru; even if it means tearing her down every chance she gets. Envy of her sister isn't Syaire's only issue. When secrets and alcohol spill on the holidays, flashing a couple grand won't save her this time. Nora is the youngest sister out of the Garrett siblings. Dropping out of college and moving to LA to be the most known model had its perks. But when things go left and her pockets are dry, shes stuck between a rock and a hard place. Not wanting to be seen as the disappointment of the family, Nora waltz into South Carolina gaming the superstar personality she once had in the beginning. With skeletons in the closet of her own, will the holidays in South Carolina be better than the not so easy life she had back in LA? The Garrett family is about to have one hell of a holiday. All they wanna do is make to New Years without killing one another. Tru only wants one thing for Christmas and it is to be true to herself. The only thing that scares her is, her family may not make it to Christmas without being on The First 48. But what would the holidays be without a little bit of Christmas Mayhem?
