My Adventures with Hoon HaDo Ales Sandra Velez, Follow the fun and crazy adventure of Ales San, when she finds the planner of her favorite entertainer in the world, Hoon HaDo. She, along with her best friend Song Jin Seong, head to South Korea—traveling from city-to-city trying to join the planner with its owner. They not only invade his personal life, but also the show he stars in—Tribal Loco—and the lives of other Korean entertainers. My Adventures with Hoon HaDo is a parody based upon the popular South Korean show Running Man. The uniqueness and familiarity of that goofball variety show is inside.

Framing Intellectual and Lived Spaces in Early South Asia Lucas den Boer,Elizabeth A.

Cecil,2020-09-21 The contributions to this book address a series of ‘confrontations’—debates between intellectual communities, the interplay of texts and images, and the intersection of monumental architecture and physical terrain—and explore the ways in which the legacy of these encounters, and the human responses to them, conditioned cultural production in early South Asia (c. 4th-7th centuries CE). Rather than an agonistic term, the book uses ‘confrontation’ as a heuristic to examine historical moments within this pivotal period in which individuals and communities were confronted with new ideas and material expressions. The first half of the volume addresses the intersections of textual, material, and visual forms of cultural production by focusing on three primary modes of confrontation: the relation of inscribed texts to material media, the visual articulation of literary images and, finally, the literary interpretation and reception of built landscapes. The second part of the volume focuses on confrontations both within and between intellectual communities. The articles address the dynamics between peripheral and dominant movements in the history of Indian philosophy.
