K-Management from Incheon Young Myon Lee,Youn Sung Kim,2021-11-22 This book is meant as a collection of success stories achieved by various organizations based in the Incheon area. It is of great significance in that it is possible to grasp the success factors of Korean management by examining the meaning of managerial leadership and management philosophy, starting from the region and growing up to being recognized in the global market and achieving results. In this respect, the collection of “K-Management Blossoming in Incheon Korea” will be a very good reference material for understanding and analyzing Korean management. In the future, it is expected to be used for the discovery and analysis of success cases in other regions of Korea. K-Pop such as BTS, Hallyu, mainly Korean films such as Parasite, Minari (Water Parsley), and Space Sweepers, in addition, the Korean brand due to K-Defense in the Pandemic Era is recognized worldwide. At this time, interest in the Korean management method (K-management) that is resistant to the crisis is also increasing. The publication of this book is the starting point for fulfilling the academic mission of establishing K-management in global management as the results of the Korea Management Association Convergence Conference held in Incheon in August 2020 lead to 'K Management from Incheon Korea'.
